

Contents

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| "What's American About America?": A Structuralist Approach JOHN G. BLAIR | 1 |
| "Playing Indian" and the Search for Authenticity in Modern White America JAY MECHLING | 17 |
| The Rituals of Humanity and the Rhythms of Reality ROLAND A. DELATTRE | 35 |
| Sex as Symbol in Victorian America CARROLL SMITH-ROSENBERG | 51 |
| Commentary on the Essays by Roland A. Delattre and Carroll Smith-Rosenberg VICTOR TURNER | 71 |
| The Rebirth of All Americans in the Great American Melting Pot: Notes Toward the Vindication of a Rejected Popular Symbol; or: An Ethnic Variety of a Religious Experience WERNER SOLLORS | 79 |
| The American Male: His Values and His Voids R. C. TOWNSEND | 111 |
| John Sloan's Images of Working-Class Women: A Case Study of the Roles and Interrelationships of Politics, Personality, and Patrons in the Development of Sloan's Art, 1905–16 PATRICIA HILLS | 157 |
| Notes Toward a Reappraisal of Depression Literature AMY GODINE | 197 |
| John Reed Club Artists and the New Deal: Radical Responses to Roosevelt's "Peaceful Revolution" HELEN A. HARRISON | 241 |

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Berenice Abbott's Work in the 1930s MICHAEL G. SUNDELL | 269 |
| Lindbergh in 1927: The Response of Poets to the Poem of Fact LAURENCE GOLDSTEIN | 293 |
| Again with Fair Creation: Holy Places in American Literature RAYMOND BENOIT | 315 |
| Parson Hooper's Power of Blackness: Sin and Self in "The Minister's Black Veil" MICHAEL J. COLACURCIO | 331 |
| "There Ought to Be Clowns": American Humor and Literary Naturalism HAMLIN HILL | 413 |
| Historicizing Fiction and Fictionalizing History: The Case of E. L. Doctorow CUSHING STROUT | 423 |
| Images of the Past: Popular Culture and Postwar America RICHARD H. PELLIS | 439 |
| TV Heroes and the Denial of Death ROGER B. ROLLIN | 457 |
| The Way to Salvation: The Hollywood Blockbuster of the 1950s THOMAS H. PAULY | 467 |
| Trimalchio in West Egg: The Great Gatsby Onstage ROBERT E. MORSBERGER | 489 |
| Against the American Game: The "Strenuous Life" of Willard Huntington Wright MYRON O. LOUNSBURY | 507 |
| Contributors | 557 |