Leveraging ambition

Irrational Security

The Politics of Defense from Reagan to Obama

Daniel Wirls

"In this compact, meaty, and devastating critique, Wirls exposes both the continuities and the contradictions informing post-Cold War U.S. national security policies."

—Andrew J. Bacevich, author of The Limits of Power: The End of American Exceptionalism

$30.00 paperback

Global Energy Security and American Hegemony

Doug Stokes and Sam Raphael

"This brilliant book forces us to rethink the last 70 years. It demonstrates how the Iraqi invasion 'was clearly about oil'; how that quest has roots running back to the 1940s; and how lopsided policies termed 'globalization' have been integrated into this quest."—Walter LaFeber, Cornell University

Themes in Global Social Change: Christopher Chase-Dunn, Series Editor
$30.00 paperback

Outside the Law

Emergency and Executive Power

Clement Fatovic

"Demonstrates quite convincingly that the importance of contingency and emergency events was never far from the minds of either the political theorists or the creators of the United States Constitution."—Journal of Homeland Security and Emergency Management

The Johns Hopkins Series in Constitutional Thought: Sanford Levinson and Jeffrey K. Tulis, Series Editors
$55.00 hardcover

Fixing Global Finance

Developing Interests Organizational Change and the Politics of Advocacy

McGee Young

“An innovative and fascinating account of the struggles of interest groups to survive, ascend to dominance, shape politics, and influence lives. Young brings the story to life with clear writing, vibrant case studies, and a commanding knowledge of American political development, public policy, and practical politics.”—David B. Robertson, coauthor of The Development of American Public Policy

“This is that rare book that political scientists will still be talking about—and reading!—a decade from now.”—Steven Teles, author of The Rise of the Conservative Legal Movement Studies in Government and Public Policy
236 pages, Cloth $34.95, Paper $19.95

Realigning America McKinley, Bryan, and the Remarkable Election of 1896

R. Hal Williams

“Vintage Williams—an epic story meticulously researched, insightfully argued, and vividly told. This fresh, authoritative account changes our understanding of one of the most momentous elections in the nation’s history.”—Michael McGerr, author of The Decline of Popular Politics: The American North, 1865–1928

“Superb, written with his customary grace and skill, well informed about the issues, and balanced in its point of view. In short, a winner.”—Lewis L. Gould, author of The Presidency of William McKinley

American Presidential Elections
272 pages, 20 photographs, Cloth $29.95

The American Liberal Tradition Reconsidered The Contested Legacy of Louis Hartz

Edited by Mark Hulliung

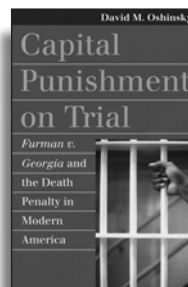

“A substantial contribution that ably assesses where things stand more than fifty years after the publication of Hartz’s provocative reading of American history in The Liberal Tradition in America.”—Michael P. Zuckert, author of Launching Liberalism

“An intellectual delight. These essays begin by wrestling with the legacy of a great book and end up offering us a grand tour of the American mind. Along the way, the authors explore our national history, culture, discourse, mythology, bigotry, politics, and academic life.”—James Morone, author of The Democratic Wish and Hellfire Nation American Political Thought
296 pages, Cloth $34.95

Kennedy vs. Carter The 1980 Battle for the Democratic Party’s Soul

Timothy Stanley

“Stanley challenges the conventional wisdom that the 1980 election marked the demise of the New Deal order. By the end of his riveting narrative, readers are likely to conclude that Stanley got it right. More than good history, this book is a serious brief for the enduring relevance of the liberal tradition.”—Allen J. Matusow, author of The Unraveling of America
320 pages, 12 photographs, Cloth $34.95

Landmark Law Cases and American Society

Peter Charles Hoffer and N.E.H. Hull, series editors

Capital Punishment on Trial

Furman v. Georgia and the Death Penalty in Modern America

David M. Oshinsky

“A meticulously researched, elegantly written, and compelling account by a masterful storyteller. Oshinsky uses Furman v. Georgia as a lens through which to view America’s long history of state killing and offers striking insights about both the case and the issues surrounding our ongoing debate about capital punishment.”

—Austin Sarat, author of When the State Kills: Capital Punishment and the American Condition

160 pages, Cloth $29.95, Paper $14.95

A Nation of Laws America’s Imperfect Pursuit of Justice

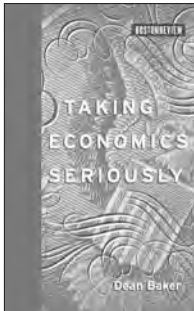

Peter Charles Hoffer

“Hoffer’s concise and fluent study of the history of American law packs a lifetime of learning into a fresh and challenging interpretation of the national experience itself.”—Sean Wilentz, author of The Rise of American Democracy: Jefferson to Lincoln
224 pages, Cloth $24.95

Dean Baker

A leading economist's exploration of what our economic arrangements might look like if we applied basic principles without ideological blinders.

A Boston Review Book • 136 pp., $14.95 cloth

Rule of Law, Misrule of Men

Elaine Scarry

"Some of the most trenchant and passionate analysis of the politics of democracy and terror in the United States. These essays are a searing call to conscience, an eloquent plea for justice, and a damning indictment of the Bush administration's response to 9/11." — David Cole, Georgetown University, coauthor of Less Safe, Less Free: Why America Is Losing the War on Terror

A Boston Review Book • 240 pp., $14.95 cloth

Treading Softly

PATHS TO ECOLOGICAL ORDER

Thomas Princen

"This is an eloquent and impassioned book. It is clearly written, lacks confounding academic artifice, and conveys a message that is simultaneously simple and profound."

— Maurie J. Cohen, New Jersey Institute of Technology
224 pp., $22.95 cloth

Living Through the End of Nature

THE FUTURE OF AMERICAN ENVIRONMENTALISM

Paul Wapner

"Wapner is one of the world's leading scholars of environmental politics and his latest book, is a sophisticated exploration of the future of the environmental movement. If you dream of a better tomorrow, Wapner's book will lead the way."

— Peter Dauvergne, University of British Columbia, author of The Shadows of Consumption
184 pp., $21.95 cloth

Economic Thought and U.S. Climate Change Policy

edited by David M. Driesen

"This book is original, timely, and important. Best of all, it addresses the economics, politics, and ethics regarding a crucial public policy issue... A must read."

— Robert Paehlke, Trent University
American and Comparative Environmental Policy series
352 pp., 3 illus., $24 paper

Global Governance of Hazardous Chemicals

CHALLENGES OF MULTILEVEL MANAGEMENT

Henrik Selin

"An illuminating account of the evolution of the global chemicals management regime. Highlighting an issue that to date has received less attention than it deserves, this book will be an invaluable resource for scholars and practitioners in the field of global environmental governance."

— Jennifer Clapp, University of Waterloo, coauthor of Paths to a Green World
Politics, Science, and the Environment series
240 pp., $22 paper

Rethinking Violence

STATES AND NON-STATE ACTORS IN CONFLICT

edited by Erica Chenoweth and Adria Lawrence

GLENN J. ANTIZZO

“Especially useful because of its informative contemporary case studies, Glenn Antizzo’s book will be an indispensable guide as American policy-makers consider military interventions in the years ahead.”

—DAVID CLINTON, editor of The Realist Tradition and Contemporary International Relations

“Antizzo’s argument about the conditions under which an intervention ought to be launched merits consideration by anyone who advocates an adventurous foreign policy.”

Doctoral Program in Political and Social Thought

What are the big, underlying ideas that inform our debates about how to adapt to change? How can we democratically respond to environmental change and to cultural difference? What are the purposes of government?

The University of Western Sydney, Australia, is offering a four year PhD in Political and Social Thought - an unrivalled innovation in Australian higher education.

At the Centre for Citizenship and Public Policy you will have the opportunity to work with Anna Yeatman, Tim Rowse, Nikolas Kompridis, Lyn Carson, Jack Barbalet and Katherine Gibson, outstanding academics providing a rich and demanding program of discussion, writing and reading. Join these internationally known intellectuals at our compact, charming Bankstown campus west of Sydney.

Centennial Center for Political Science & Public Affairs Research Opportunities in Washington, D.C.

I enjoyed my stay in Washington D.C. immensely, and the high quality facilities and friendly staff at the Centennial Center made it a great base from which to conduct my fieldwork. I found the facilities to be well located making it easy to travel to my interviews and use the National Security Archive at GWU. Coming to Washington as an international scholar, I found it helpful when securing key interviews to have the support of such a respected organization.

-Emma Briant, University of Glasgow

Created in celebration of the American Political Science Association centennial, the Centennial Center for Political Science and Public Affairs encourages research, writing, and collaboration among scholars working within the discipline.

The Center, located in Association headquarters in D.C., assists scholars from the United States and abroad whose research and teaching could benefit from a stay in and access to the incomparable resources in the nation's capital. The Center has space for ten visiting scholars for extended periods of time ranging from a few weeks to a year.

The Center features:

- personal work space
- computer, high-speed internet, and wireless
- personal phone, fax, and printing
- flexible scheduling for long and short stays
- convenient downtown location, metro accessible
- meeting and conference room facilities
- reference library
- night and weekend access
- community of scholars
- access to: U.S. government, Library of Congress, National Archives, World Bank, International Monetary Fund, USAID, national party headquarters, embassies from around the world, Organization of American States, etc.

Funding Opportunities

As a result of generous contributions by members and friends, APSA developed endowments for grant programs that may support stays at the Centennial Center.

Politics & Gender is an agenda-setting journal that publishes the highest quality scholarship on gender and politics and on women and politics. It aims to represent the full range of questions, issues, and approaches on gender and women across the major subfields of political science, including comparative politics, international relations, political theory, and U.S. politics. The Editors welcome studies that address fundamental questions in politics and political science from the perspective of gender, as well as those that interrogate and challenge standard theoretical approaches, methodologies, and analytical categories.
