

THE SOCIETY FOR IBERIAN AND LATIN AMERICAN THOUGHT

William F. Cooper
Baylor University

The Society for Iberian and Latin American thought (SILAT) was founded in March 1976, during the national meeting of the Latin American Studies Association (LASA). The purpose of SILAT is to foster the scholarly study of Iberian and Latin American thought through the presentation of papers and discussions at professional meetings and through publications. A current bibliography will be published in a planned biennial (January and August) SILAT Newsletter/Bibliography. Persons interested in receiving application forms for membership in the Society or additional information regarding the newsletter are invited to write to:

Professor William F. Cooper
Secretary-Treasurer of SILAT
Department of Philosophy
Baylor University
Waco, Texas 76703

A membership fee of $5.00 per year will be used to cover the cost of the Newsletter/Bibliography as well as mailing and other incidental expenses.
