

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Two Academic Programs in Law and Philosophy at the University of Western Ontario. (1) There is a Special Ph.D. Program in Legal Philosophy. This program gives up to four semester courses credits towards the Ph.D. degree for having taken first year law at an accredited law school (antecedent to entering or during the program). Enrollment in the Ph.D. philosophy and law program is undertaken after the completion of an M.A. and with admission to Philosophy through the Graduate Faculty UWO. (2) There is an LL.B./M.A. program. In this program law students at the University of Western Ontario may receive credit towards the LL.B. degree by taking certain philosophy courses (up to four semester courses). Enrollment in the LL.B./M.A. program is undertaken at the end of the first year of LL.B. studies; a special M.A. year in philosophy is taken after completing the LL.B. degree. Graduate students in philosophy are eligible for various forms of financial support. Application for the Ph.D. program should be made to the Director of Graduate Studies, Department of Philosophy, UWO, London, Ontario, Canada N6A 3K7.

The School of Law (Boalt Hall) at the University of California at Berkeley offers a program designed for students interested in combining the scholarly examination of legal ideas and institutions with research on issues of social policy. The Jurisprudence and Social Policy Program leads to the Ph.D. degree. A professional law degree is not a prerequisite for admission. It is possible, however, simultaneously to pursue the Ph.D. in Jurisprudence and Social Policy and the J.D. degree at Boalt Hall. Application materials as well as further information may be obtained from The Graduate Assistant, Jurisprudence and Social Policy Program, School of Law, Univ. of California at Berkeley, Berkeley, CA 94720 USA.
