

The Presidency of Theodore Roosevelt Second Edition, Revised and Expanded

Lewis L. Gould

"For all his adventurous life and colorful personality, Theodore Roosevelt was first and foremost a politician and a policymaker who exercised his gifts most fully as president. No one has explored and illuminated this central dimension of TR better than Lewis Gould in this volume. Anyone who wishes to know what TR did in the White House, why he did it, and what was the importance of what he did and thought in those years must read this book."

—John Milton Cooper, author of Woodrow Wilson: A Biography and Pivotal Decades: The United States, 1900–1920

"A clear, balanced, insightful account that establishes itself as the best treatment yet done of its subject."

—American Historical Review

The Disputed Presidential Election of 1876

Michael F. Holt

"The most comprehensive account to date of the presidential election that effectively ended Reconstruction and in some ways foreshadowed another disputed contest a century and a quarter later."—Journal of American History

"A richly textured account interwoven with manifold insights regarding political motive and maneuver. Holt's fellow antebellum historians will recognize the hand of the master at work here, while specialists in late nineteenth-century politics will welcome his provocative, sometimes controversial, analyses."—Reviews in American History

American Presidential Elections

314 pages, 18 illustrations, Paper $19.95

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ON-LINE ACCESS

Institutional subscribers: If you are connecting from an institution with a current subscription to JGAPE, you will automatically receive access to full online content. This is enabled through the use of institutional IP address ranges and does not require a personal login. However, to use the features Cambridge Journals Online offers, including bookmarking articles, saving searches, etc., you must register on the site and select your own username and password.

Individual members: You will need to register on CJO and select your username and password. You will then need to activate your subscription. This will become a simpler procedure during the fall of 2011, when the SHGAPE membership services page becomes live on the site. More information and specific details will be forthcoming. In the interim, click through to the “Subscription Access” function under the “Access Information” menu on the left on the CJO site, <http://journals.cambridge.org/jga>. The online access registration should be self-evident, but if you have difficulties, contact either the CJO administrators or the journal editor.
