Medical History

An International Journal for the History of Medicine and Related Sciences

Editor

Sanjoy Bhattacharya, University of York, UK

Medical History is a refereed journal devoted to all aspects of the history of medicine, health and related sciences, with the goal of broadening and deepening the understanding of the field, in the widest sense, by historical studies of the highest quality. It is associated with the European Association for the History of Medicine and Health, the Asian Society for the History of Medicine, and the World Health Organization's Global Health Histories initiative. The membership of the Editorial Board reflects the commitment to the finest international standards in refereeing of submitted papers and the reviewing of books.

British Journal for the History of Science

Published for the British Society for the History of Science

Editor

Jon Agar, University College London, UK

This leading international journal publishes scholarly papers and review articles on all aspects of the history of science. History of science is interpreted widely to include medicine, technology and social studies of science.

BJHS papers make important and lively contributions to scholarship and the journal has been an essential library resource for more than thirty years. It is also used extensively by historians and scholars in related fields. A substantial book review section is a central feature. There are four issues a year, comprising an annual volume of over 600 pages.

Arabic Sciences and Philosophy

A Historical Journal

Executive Editor

Roshdi Rashed, CNRS, Paris, France & University of Tokyo, Japan

Managing Editor

Ahmed Hasnaoui, CNRS, Paris, France

Arabic Sciences and Philosophy (ASP) is an international journal devoted to the Arabic sciences, mathematics and philosophy in the world of Islam between the eighth and eighteenth centuries, in a cross-cultural context. In 2009, the journal extended its scope to include important papers on scientific modernization from the nineteenth century in the Islamic world. Together with original studies on the history of all these fields, ASP also offers work on the inter-relations between Arabic and Greek, Indian, Chinese, Latin, Byzantine, Syriac and Hebrew sciences and philosophy. Casting new light on the growth of these disciplines, as well as on the social and ideological context in which this growth took place, ASP is essential reading for those interested in these areas.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Contributions of about 10,000 words should be submitted by email to the editorial office with a message that includes your name, telephone number, and email address. Submissions should be sent as an attachment in the format .doc or .docx to <sic@post.tau.ac.il>. The editors require that the article be introduced by a paragraph of about 150 words that presents its argument.

The journal follows the author-date reference system that is generally used in the social and natural sciences. 'Documentation 2 Author-Date Citations and Reference Lists' of the Chicago Manual of Style and a back issue of the journal should be used as guides. More detailed instructions for contributors and specific guidelines (e. g. for transliteration from Russian or Hebrew) are available from <http://journals.cambridge.org/action/displayJournal?jid=SIC>. Unusual alphabets, special characters, mathematical and chemical formulas, and all diacritical marks should be clearly indicated. Articles may be illustrated by a small number of figures in black and white, formatted in TIFF, with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi for halftones and 600 dpi for line drawings. For further information, contact the editorial office.
