Lingua

International Review of General Linguistics

Editors:

W. Sidney Allen, Cambridge

Executive Editors:

S. C. Dik, Amsterdam
J. G. Kooij, Leyden

Founded in 1947 as an independent forum for students of language, LINGUA has developed into one of the world's more important linguistic periodicals.

Each bi-monthly issue contains current work on a variety of linguistic topics. Although these articles are written from different points of view, they are required to contain such general theoretical implications as to be of interest to any linguist, whatever his own specialization.

No particular linguistic theories or scientific trends are favoured; scientific quality and scholarly standing are the only criteria applied in the selection of papers accepted for publication.

Besides papers, LINGUA publishes review articles surveying developments in the various fields of linguistics, as well as occasional discussions. A considerable number of pages in each issue are devoted to critical book reviews. In addition, a 'Publications Received' section, systematically ordered by topic, gives a useful account of recent linguistic publications.

LINGUA is published in two volumes per year, comprising six bi-monthly issues. The subscription price for 1974, Volumes 33 and 34 is Dfl. 146.00 or US$58.50 including postage and handling. Sample copies are available on request.

Subscription orders and sample copy requests should be sent to the Publisher or to your usual supplier.

English-Teaching Information Centre (ETIC)

The English-Teaching Information Centre is maintained by the British Council as a study centre and clearing-house for information on all aspects of teaching English as a second or foreign language overseas. Since its foundation in 1961 the Centre has developed a network of communication with individuals and institutions in Great Britain and more than 120 other countries. Its services are available to all who are professionally concerned – students, teachers, trainers of teachers, research workers, administrators or writers. Enquiries should be addressed to:

Centre for Information on Language Teaching and Research (CILT)

The Centre for Information on Language Teaching and Research, established in 1966, is an independent foundation supported by grants from the Department of Education and Science, the Scottish Education Department, and the Ministry of Education, Northern Ireland. It coordinates and provides information about all aspects of modern languages (including English as a second language) and their teaching in Great Britain. Further information can be obtained from:

LONDON WC1R 4TN

ETIC and CILT, which occupy adjacent accommodation, maintain jointly the Language-Teaching Library (about 25,000 volumes), where files of journals covered by Language-Teaching Abstracts may be consulted. The library also includes an audio-visual section with facilities for hearing and viewing teaching materials; a register of relevant current research is available for reference.

In addition to joint publications such as Language-Teaching Abstracts and A Language-Teaching Bibliography, each centre issues publications from time to time in its own name.
