

Law & Social Inquiry

Journal of the American Bar Foundation
Volume 31, Number 3, Summer 2006

Blackwell Publishing

---

Law & Social Inquiry

---

Volume 31, Number 3, Summer 2006

---

ARTICLES

---

FORUM: Law Between the Global and the Local

- Introduction: Global Processes, National Institutions,
Local Bricolage:* 513
Shaping Law in an Era of Globalization
Marion Fourcade and Joachim J. Savelsberg
- Negotiating Globalization: Global Scripts and Intermediation in the Construction of Asian Insolvency Regimes* 521
Bruce G. Carruthers and Terence C. Halliday
- Swaying the Hand of Justice: The Internal and External Dynamics of Regime Change at the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia* 585
John Hagan, Ron Levi, and Gabrielle Ferrales
- The Principle, Politics, and Finances of Introducing Academic Merit as the Standard of Hiring for “the teaching of law as a career,” 1870–1900* 617
Bruce A. Kimball
- Coffee House: Habitus and Performance Among Law Students* 649
Desmond Manderson and Sarah Turner
- Educational Debt and Law Student Failure to Enter Public Service Careers: Bringing Empirical Data to Bear* 677
Christa McGill

---

REVIEW ESSAYS 709

---

- How Much Do Conservative Tort Tales Matter?* 711
Robert A. Kagan
- On Analyzing Legal Culture: A Reply to Kagan* 739
Michael McCann and William Haltom
- Approaches to Law and Popular Culture* 757
Douglas J. Goodman

---

BOOK NOTES 785

---