The Children's Friend A Life of Christ for Children

By the Rev.

THOMAS A. LAHEY, C.S.C.

Fr Lahey's earlier writings for children (God's Heroes; God's Wonderworld) are a warrant of his power to bring home to the young mind the lessons in the life of Our Lord. This narrative, told with the simplicity and enthusiasm of a bed-time story, brings out on every page how Christ is the children's friend, how He came on earth to bring them to heaven by defeating all the enemies who might try to destroy their lives by sin. He is their hero, Who goes about caring for the poor, the sick, the humble, and the outcast lepers, Who eats and drinks with sinners whom He is ready to forgive if they are sorry for having done wrong. He rises from the tomb a victor to assure all children that He will make them victors over the enemies of their souls, if they will be loyal to Him. A number of reproductions from Tissot's paintings of the life of Christ gives added interest to this story of the Children's Friend.

The Children's Friend Teacher's Aid

This is a companion volume and is full of suggestions to help the teacher bring out more fully the lessons from Our Lord's Life. With this simple story for the children and the suggestions in the Teacher's Aid it should be an easy task to awaken interest and enthusiasm in the little ones for the Children's Friend.
