Central European History

Published for the Conference Group for Central European History of the American Historical Association

Editor-in-Chief

Kenneth Ledford, Case Western Reserve University, USA

Associate Editor (Book Reviews)

Catherine Epstein, Amherst College, USA

Central European History offers articles, review essays, and book reviews that range widely through the history of Germany, Austria, and other German-speaking regions of Central Europe from the medieval era to the present. All topics and approaches to history are welcome, whether cultural, social, political, diplomatic, intellectual, economic, and military history, as well as historiography and methodology. Contributions that treat new fields, such as post-1945 and post-1989 history, maturing fields such as gender history, and less-represented fields such as medieval history and the history of the Habsburg lands are especially desired. The journal thus aims to be the primary venue for scholarly exchange and debate among scholars of the history of Central Europe.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Continuity and Change aims to define a field of historical sociology concerned with long-term continuities and discontinuities in the structure of past societies. Emphasis is upon studies whose agenda or methodology combines elements from traditional fields such as history, sociology, law, demography, economics or anthropology, or ranges freely between them. There is a strong commitment to comparative studies over a broad range of cultures and time spans.

Editors

Dr Eilidh Garrett, 63 Barncliffe Crescent, Lodge Moor, Sheffield S10 4DB, UK.
email: eilidh.garrett@btinternet.com

Dr Mary Louise Nagata, Francis Marion University, Department of History, 4822 E. Palmetto, Florence, SC 29506, USA.
email: mnagata@fmarion.edu

Dr Julie Marfany, All Souls College, Oxford OX1 4AL, UK.
email: julie.marfany@history.ox.ac.uk

Books for review should be sent to Dr Marfany at her address as given above.

1. Articles should usually be less than 9000 words, including endnotes and a 100-word abstract. Texts should be double-spaced throughout and on one side of the paper only, with generous margins and submitted by email as Word files to each of the Editors. The title page should indicate the word-length of the article and affiliation and contact address of the author(s). Comments on previously published articles will also be considered, provided they do not exceed 1500 words.
2. Endnotes should be numbered consecutively through the manuscript and typed double-spaced on separate pages at the end. Bibliographical references should be given in full in the endnotes when first cited; thereafter use author surname and short title.
3. Maps and graphs (figures) and tables should be submitted in separate files, and the text annotated to indicate where they should be placed. Figures should be submitted as tif or eps files. Electronic Figure Guidelines can be obtained from the Editorial Assistant.
4. British conventions for spelling and punctuation are followed.
5. The Editors reserve the right to request authors to meet the costs of major correction to the English that they consider necessary after the articles have been reviewed and resubmitted by the authors.
6. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved).

A full set of conventions is available on our website at: journals.cambridge.org/con.
