

Indiana University Press is pleased to inaugurate a new series which will provide outstanding scholarship on Chinese literature from a number of disciplines, including biography, criticism, social and political research, and history.

STUDIES IN CHINESE LITERATURE AND SOCIETY

Irving Yucheng Lo, Joseph S. M. Lau, Leo Ou-fan Lee, and Eugene Eoyang, editors

The LYRICAL and the EPIC Studies of Modern Chinese Literature

By Jaroslav Průšek
Edited by Leo Ou-fan Lee

Průšek's most important studies of modern Chinese literature, many of them previously unavailable in this country. Průšek traces the lyrical/subjective and the epic/objective traditions, demonstrating important relationships between traditional and modern Chinese literature.

$22.50

Chinese Fiction from Taiwan Critical Perspectives

Edited by Jeannette L. Faurot

The first scholarly study of Taiwan fiction in the West. Leading scholars explore the prolific flowering of Chinese literature in Taiwan in the past two decades—a period distinguished by intense honesty and a spirit of experimentation.

$17.50

The CLASSIC CHINESE NOVEL A Critical Introduction

By C. T. Hsia

"... The Classic Chinese Novel, for its painstaking research, its impeccable scholarship... and its fund of invaluable insights, is a classic in itself."
—Journal of Asian Studies "... by all odds the best and most complete [book] of its kind." —Literature East and West cloth $17.50 paper $7.95

AVAILABLE AT BOOKSTORES OR SEND $1.50 POSTAGE AND HANDLING FOR FIRST BOOK, 25¢ FOR EACH ADDITIONAL BOOK, TO ORDER FROM PUBLISHER.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS
TENTH AND MORTON STREETS, BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA 47405

The Shaping of Chinese Foreign Policy

Greg O'Leary, College of Arts, Adelaide, Australia

In a major reexamination of Chinese foreign policy-making during the decisive period of China's "turn to the West" between the Ninth and Tenth Party Congresses (between 1969 and 1973), Greg O'Leary analyzes the way in which the Chinese Communist Party interprets developments in international capitalism and formulates its responses. O'Leary takes issue with the two most commonly held views of Chinese foreign policy—that it is rigidly Marxist-Leninist, and that it is pragmatic and opportunistic—and argues persuasively that the Chinese interpret international developments according to consistent principles derived from the social practice of their own society.

1980 ISBN 0-312-71620-6 302 pp., cloth $25.00

Tanaka Giichi and Japan's China Policy

William Fitch Morton, York College, City University of New York

Tanaka Giichi, Japanese military leader and prime minister from 1927 to 1929, had a formative influence on the development of Japanese policy towards China. In this book, William Fitch Morton has drawn widely from primary sources of the period, and particularly from Tanaka's private papers, to provide a ground-breaking study of Tanaka's career and of the factors influencing Japanese relations with China during the first third of this century.

1980 ISBN 0-312-78500-3 329 pp., 3 maps, cloth $25.00

Broken Images

Essays on Chinese Culture and Politics

Simon Leys, Australian National University

In this volume Simon Leys brings together the articles he has written over the past four years on modern Chinese culture and politics. The essays, most of which appear here in English for the first time, include penetrating studies of writers such as Lu Hsun and Chen Jo-hsi, acerbic portraits of politicians such as Mao, Chiang Ch'ing and Chiang Kai-shek, and a series of revealing first-hand accounts of everyday life in contemporary China.

1980 ISBN 0-312-10594-0 156 pp., cloth $17.50

Critiques of Confucius in Contemporary China

Kam Louie

In this volume, Kam Louie examines the changing attitudes of Chinese intellectuals toward Confucius and Confucianism over the course of this century, particularly since the beginning of the communist period in 1949. The book is organized chronologically, and throughout, the author devotes particular attention to three major themes: the significance of Confucius' class background, his theories of ethics and his ideas on education. An extensive bibliography enhances the work's usefulness for all students of contemporary Chinese culture.

1980 ISBN 0-312-17645-7 186 pp., cloth $22.50

China Since the Gang of Four

edited by Bill Brugger, Flinders University of South Australia

In seven specially commissioned essays, this book explores the dramatic changes that have occurred in China since the death of Chairman Mao and the arrest of the "Gang of Four" in late 1976. The contributors address crucial questions about the extent to which Mao's policies have been abandoned or modified and the reactions to the "Gang" in their attempt to identify the broad significance of the recent Chinese experience.

1980 ISBN 0-312-13323-5 281 pp., cloth $27.50

The Development of Indonesian Society

edited by Harry Aveling, Murdoch University, West Australia

"A useful and authoritative introduction to Indonesian history and society."—Choice

A survey of Indonesian history from 1500 to the present, this study is a collaborative effort of four internationally recognized scholars. Each contributor emphasizes the importance of looking at Indonesian history from the inside, and together they trace a common theme: the development of Indonesian society toward united statehood. The volume is well illustrated and supplemented with detailed notes, a glossary of frequently used non-English words, and a bibliography.

1980 ISBN 0-312-19661-X 242 pp., illus. $27.50

To order these books for your library at 20% discount, please write:

St Martin's Press
Post Office Box 5352 New York, NY 10163

VIET NAM... Time to Look Back

Why Viet Nam?

Prelude to America's Albatross

Archimedes L. A. Patti

The first account of the dramatic events of those first months of America's involvement in Indochina. "Patti's long-awaited account of what he saw and learned as OSS representative in Hanoi in 1945 is an extremely important contribution to our understanding of the origins of a 30-year war that has changed the course of recent history. One can only read it with pain and anguish, thinking of what might have been had the United States valued the principles of self-determination it professed instead of committing its resources to oppression and destruction." —Noam Chomsky $16.50, illustrated.

When Governments Collide

Coercion and Diplomacy in the Vietnam

Conflict, 1964-1968

Wallace J. Thies

In 1964 Lyndon Johnson initiated a process that culminated in the bombing of North Vietnam and the use of American ground troops in South Vietnam. Although there had been considerable theorizing on the requirements of a successful coercive strategy, persuading the North Vietnamese to "leave their neighbors alone" proved more difficult than generally expected. Thies explains why this was the case. $20.00

The Development of Capitalism in Colonial Indochina (1870-1940)

Martin J. Murray

This is the first attempt by a Western writer at a systematic and comprehensive analysis of capitalism in Indochina, and goes far toward explaining the backwardness of Indochinese economic structures after 70 years of capitalist "development." $29.50

The Rational Peasant

The Political Economy of Rural Society in Vietnam

Samuel Popkin

"A model of theoretical reflection based on fieldwork in Vietnam, this is a spirited and carefully argued attack on widely held but romanticized assumptions about the security and benefits of traditional village life." —John K. Fairbank "A model of clarity . . . I know of no contemporary social scientist who has put the case for the political economy view more convincingly."
—F. G. Bailey $14.95 cloth, $4.95 paper.

Vietnamese Anticolonialism, 1885-1925

David G. Marr

"Marr has made excellent use of his sources of information, and has produced a book which is a real contribution to the history of Vietnam." —Asian Affairs $20.00 cloth, $8.95 paper, illustrated.

University of California Press
Berkeley 94720

HOOVER

CHINA'S GLOBAL ROLE

An Analysis of Peking's National Power Capabilities in the Context of an Evolving International System

John Franklin Copper

Publication 226 197 pages $7.95 paper

China will undoubtedly exercise some, perhaps considerable, influence on the development of a new style of international politics as we evolve away from the bipolar system. This relevant analysis defines China's rank among the hierarchy of world powers by specifically assessing its ability to influence other nations and to play a role in world affairs.

Copper's study is critically relevant to the theory that a Sino-American/Japanese alliance would be an effective response to the growth of Soviet power.

Chalmers Johnson
University of California, Berkeley

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND CHINA'S DRIVE FOR MODERNIZATION

Richard P. Suttmeier

Publication 223 133 pages $6.95 paper

China's new international posture on science and technology has as one purpose the use of resources available through international relations. How should the United States respond to China's demands for the most advanced science and technology within the context of this new foreign policy? How can the United States properly supervise the export to the People's Republic of China of its most advanced scientific knowledge? Or should it? These and other significant questions are probed in this incisive monograph.

HOOVER INSTITUTION PRESS • Dept. A8054
Stanford University • Stanford, CA 94305

(When ordering, please include $1.50 for postage. California residents add 6-6½% tax.)

An Atlas of the Mughal Empire Political and Economic Maps with Detailed Notes, Bibliography and Index

IRFAN HABIB, Aligarh Muslim University, India. This unique atlas provides the most detailed maps ever produced of South Asia in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Over 4,000 places are shown on the political maps with boundaries of all the Mughal provinces and districts. Economic maps of each region show trade routes, natural resources, and industrial and farming areas. Detailed notes give references for every place or legend on the maps and an introduction helps the reader make fullest use of the Atlas.

1980

120 pp.; 35 full page maps

$69.00

Islamic Society on the South Asian Frontier The Mappilas of Malabar, 1498–1922

STEPHEN FREDERIC DALE, Ohio State University. In this study of the Muslims of Kerala in South India from the arrival of Vasco de Gama in 1498 to the Mappila Rebellion of 1921–2, the author examines the tense relations between the Muslims and the Europeans and Hindus of Kerala. Professor Dale focuses on the reasons why their relationship has stimulated the growth of a militant Muslim tradition and shows that this militant tradition is part of a wider pattern of Islamic communities in India and Southeast Asia.

1980

352 pp.; frontis.; 6 halftones; 8 maps

$49.95

Peasant State and Society in Medieval South India

BURTON STEIN, University of Hawaii, Honolulu. Professor Stein examines South India—one of the oldest continuing peasant societies in the world—from the time it took stable form in the seventh century to the arrival of the Europeans. He questions the assumptions underlying the established historiography on medieval South India and provides the basis for a new interpretation focusing on peasant society and culture.

December 1980

450 pp.; 4 maps

$17.95

Inequality and Economic Development in Malaysia

DONALD R. SNODGRASS, Harvard Institute of International Development. The problem of inequality and economic development is one which Malaysia shares with many developing countries. In this study, Professor Snodgrass focuses on the ethnic dimensions of the problem, details economic policy since 1969, and appraises the efforts of the Malaysian Government to deal with economic inequality. Chapters are devoted to fiscal redistribution, rural and agricultural development policies, urban and industrial development policies, education, and general policies.

1980

340 pp.; numerous tables

cloth $32.50, paper $17.95

The Sociology of South-East Asia Readings on Social Change and Development

Edited by HANS-DIETER EVERS, University of Bielefeld, West Germany. This collection of readings begins with an overview of South-East Asian societies in a developmental and historical perspective and then discusses four major concepts: dual societies, plural societies, loosely structured social systems and involution. The last section of the book suggests some alternative approaches to the study of South-East Asian societies.

1980

350 pp.

$32.50

Prices and publication dates are subject to change.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
200 Madison Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10016

THE PLAY OF THE GODS

Locality, Ideology, Structure, and Time in the Festivals of a Bengali Town

Ákos Östör

The first sustained study of Indian festivals, with detailed descriptions and interpretations of two of the most popular and complex of these Bengali rituals.

"The theoretical thrust of Östör's presentation amounts to a striking development of Dumont's insights about hierarchy, relation, and structure in South Asia."—Steve Barnett

Cloth 264 pages $27.00 Available

THE JOURNEY TO THE WEST

Translated and Edited by Anthony C. Yu Volume 3

Volume 3 of the beloved Chinese classic Hsi-yu Chi continues the monk Tripitaka's journey to India with four animal disciples in quest of Buddhist scriptures. This volume contains the hilarious account of the pilgrims' pregnancy in the Kingdom of Women and the well-known episode of the Mountain of Flames, where the pilgrims battle the Bull Demon King.

"[Readers] will be astonished by the riches now available to them in this truly complete translation of the novel."—Frederic Wakeman, Jr., New York Review of Books

Cloth 512 pages $30.00 Available

VILLAGE AND FAMILY IN CONTEMPORARY CHINA

William L. Parish and Martin King Whyte

"This book tells us much that we always wanted to know about China but feared we would never find out. As such it is the most important sociological contribution to our understanding of the People's Republic of China yet to appear."—G. William Skinner, Stanford University

Paper 436 pages $8.95 Available

HOMO HIERARCHICUS

The Caste System and Its Implications

Complete Revised English Edition

Louis Dumont

This edition of Dumont's modern classic includes a new preface in which the author answers his critics, a new postface, and three significant appendixes previously omitted from the English translation.

"This book is a major contribution to the general sociological theory of Indian caste."—South Asia Review

"A profound contribution to Indian studies."—American Anthropologist

Paper TBA December Also available in cloth

CHICAGO

Since 1891, Publishers of Scholarly Books and Journals

Now in Paperback— Three Novels by R. K. Narayan

Swami and Friends

With that gentle humor, Narayan's first novel evokes for us the universal experiences of childhood while capturing the particular flavor of what that experience was like in 1930 amidst the first stirrings of India's struggle for independence.

"R. K. Narayan has for several decades been the best Indian writer in English. From year to year I have had hope that he will be awarded a Nobel Prize. That may still happen."—J. A. B. van Buitenen

Paper 192 pages $3.95 Also available in cloth.

The Bachelor of Arts

With an Introduction by Graham Greene

"Narayan . . . wakes in me a spring of gratitude, for he has offered me a second home. Without him I could never have known what it is like to be Indian."

—Graham Greene

Narayan's second novel is the story of a young man coming of age in India. Like many of Narayan's works, it revolves around the universals of human experience—leaving home to find oneself, falling in love, losing that love—and is set in the very particular circumstances of colonial India.

Paper 268 pages $3.95 Also available in cloth.

The English Teacher

This novel completes the trilogy which began with Swami and Friends and The Bachelor of Arts. The story of the English teacher Krishna, his married life, the first few years of happiness, his wife's death, and the last journey to the cremation grounds, is an astonishingly moving and almost flawless piece of writing.

Paper 184 pages $3.95 Also available in cloth.

The University of Chicago Press • Chicago 60637

CHINA'S INTELLECTUAL DILEMMAPolitics and University Enrolment, 1949-1978 Robert Taylor

In analysing the conflicting philosophies which have shaped China's educational system and the events leading up to the national Convention of 1978, Taylor deals with issues that are central to understanding China's modern development and the goals of Chinese society as a whole. 306 pages, approx., December 1980, Cloth, $18.50.

THE MILITARY DIMENSION OF THE CHINESE REVOLUTION Edmund Fung

In this pioneering work, Fung describes the military reforms which led to establishment of China's New Army, the army's relationship to the social order, the processes of military subversion, and the New Army's pivotal role in the Republican Revolution of 1911. 250 pages approx., November 1980, Cloth, $28.00.

AGRARIAN CLASS CONFLICT
The Political Mobilization of Agricultural Labourers in Kuttanad, South India Joseph Tharamangalam

Based on extensive field work and important primary sources, this case study documents how changes in the economic and social conditions of farm labourers led to class conflict and political mobilization. It offers valuable insights into methods used by trade unions and the Communist Party to organize at the grass roots level. 176 pages approx., December 1980, Cloth, $19.00.

MALAYSIAN MOSAIC
Perspectives from a Poly-Ethnic Society Judith Nagata

This book offers an intensive analysis of the emergence and development of various ethnic communities in Western Malaysia. 328 pages, 1980, Cloth, $24.00.

LIVE MACHINES
Hired Foreigners in Meiji Japan H.J. Jones

A comprehensive study of the crucial role played by hired foreigners in Japan's program of planned modernization in the late 1800's. 226 pages, 1980, Cloth, $19.00.

*University of British Columbia Press,
303-6344 Memorial Road,
The University of British Columbia,
Vancouver, B.C., Canada V6T 1W5*

Introduction to Japan

Edwin O. Reischauer

INTRODUCTION TO JAPAN provides a comprehensive description of the nation and its people, from their geographical setting and historical background to an up-to-the-minute discussion of Japanese politics, education, and economy.

Album of 8 filmstrips and 8 cassettes
$195.00 until 1/1/81; thereafter,
$240.00

China's Development Experience in Comparative Perspective

Robert Dernberger, Editor

While comparing China's economic development policies to those of other countries, this book clearly identifies the features that make China unique. International experts examine three areas of China's development program most frequently cited as success stories — income distribution, industrial technology, and public health, carefully documenting the degree to which these successes depend on the political and social environment.

Harvard East Asian Series, 93

and

A Social Science Research Council Study $30.00

*Distributed by the Press —
Available December '80*

China's Silk Trade

Traditional Industry in the Modern World, 1842–1937

Lillian M. Li

Modern China's most important export commodity, silk, is traced from the opening of the treaty ports to the 1930s. The book examines the silk industry as it moved into large-scale trade with the West, and considers whether traditional economic organizations and practices encouraged or inhibited the expansion of the industry and its technological modernization.

Harvard East Asian Monographs, 97
$15.00

The Shanghai Capitalists and the Nationalist Government, 1927–1937

Parks M. Coble

A common generalization about the Nationalist Government in China during the 1927–1937 decade has been that Chiang Kai-shek's regime was closely allied with the capitalists in Shanghai. This book paints a different picture — that Nanking sought to control the capitalists politically and economically.

Harvard East Asian Monographs, 94
$15.00

Sino-Soviet Crisis Politics

A Study of Political Change and Communication

Richard Wich

Through an analysis of political perception and communication, this book explains the structural change in the international political landscape that followed the 1968 Soviet intervention in Czechoslovakia. It examines the shifts in China's global policies and analyzes the complex signaling process through which that change was accomplished. This volume throws light upon the dynamics of the Sino-Soviet conflict.

Harvard East Asian Monographs, 96
$15.00

Harvard University Press

Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138

The Art of Hokusai in Book Illustration

Jack Hillier

Although the most widely recognized Japanese artist in the Western world, Hokusai's work as a book-illustrator and designer remains relatively unknown. In this exquisitely illustrated volume, Hillier traces the seventy-year evolution of Hokusai's print designs—from the cheap novelette to the literary classic, from the erotica to the classic Japanese "picture-book." $95.00 until 12/31/80, $110.00 thereafter. Large format, 200 black-&white, 86 color illustrations.

Reputations Live On

An Early Malay Autobiography

Amin Sweeney

In this translation and analysis of an early Malay autobiography, written by one of the chief pioneers of the modern state of Johor, Sweeney provides a rare "insider's" view of a critical period of transition in modern Malay history. $12.00, illustrated.

The Voice of the Tambaran

Truth and Illusion in Iahita Arapesh Religion

Donald F. Tuzin

In this sequel to his study of Iahita Arapesh social organization, Tuzin offers a global examination of the secret men's Tambaran Cult in this society: its ritual, art, mythology, ideology and sociocultural expressiveness. $20.00, illustrated.

Karma and Rebirth in Classical Indian Traditions

Edited by Wendy Doniger O'Flaherty

Karma is perhaps the most famous concept in Indian philosophy, but until now there has been no comprehensive study of its various meanings of philosophical implications. In this volume leading American Indologists present an encompassing approach to the many different Indian statements on the subject. $25.00.

An American Transplant

The Rockefeller Foundation and Peking Union Medical College

Mary Brown Bullock

Bullock discusses the origin and appropriateness of the Peking Union Medical College model, the personal role of the Rockefeller family in PUMC affairs, the Sinification of the faculty, and the careers of PUMC graduates in China to the present day. $17.50, illustrated.

North India Between Empires

Awadh, the Mughals, and the British, 1720-1801

Richard B. Barnett

Barnett's study of India's early modern political evolution uses a novel analysis of political resource exchange to illustrate the detailed workings of an Indian state during several stages of autonomy, expansion, confrontation, and adaptation to military dependence on the British. $22.50.

Rebellion and Democracy in Meiji Japan

A Study of Commoners in the Popular Rights Movement

Roger W. Bowen

"Bowen's theme is an important one in modern Japanese history, and his interpretation of it differs radically from those presented by other scholars. Indeed, he provides a fundamental revision of the prevalent interpretation of the domestic politics of the early Meiji state." —John W. Hall $25.00.

University of California Press

Berkeley 94720

For a greater understanding of Asian theology today...a book of "Tremendous value..."

[for] the picture it gives of the creativity, vitality, and variety of Christian thought in the Asian churches today. . . We may have in this book the beginnings of a real word of God to us from the Asian experience."

—DR. CHARLES C. WEST,
Princeton Theological Seminary

ASIAN CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY: EMERGING THEMES

Edited by DOUGLAS J. ELWOOD

$9.95t, now at your bookstore, or order from the publisher.

THE WESTMINSTER PRESS

925 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. 19107

t—tentative price

Directory of Information Sources in Japan, 1980

Edited by the Japan Special Libraries Association and published by Nichigai Associates
320 pp 26 x 18 cm Clothbound 1979 Fall
US $55.00 (Plus shipping charges)

The DIRECTORY OF INFORMATION SOURCES IN JAPAN presents a complete and comprehensive listing of special libraries and information organizations in Japan. Covering about 1,500 special information sources including those of the central and local governments, companies, universities, academic societies, trade associations and international organizations, this DIRECTORY puts nearly every information source in Japan at your fingertips.

Indexed for the convenience of overseas readers, entries are given both in English and Romanized Japanese.

Designated as UNESCO's authorized source of data on special libraries and information sources in Japan.

Know where the knowledge is. Order your copy today.

ORDER FORM

Please return this order to:
Kinokuniya Book-Stores of America Co., Ltd.
1581 Webster Street
San Francisco, Calif. 94115
U.S.A.

DIRECTORY OF INFORMATION SOURCES IN JAPAN 1980

NAME: _____

ADDRESS: _____

Orbis Books

New Asian Religious Studies

THE SEARCH FOR GOD An Encounter with the Peoples and Religions of Asia

by Walbert Buhmann, O.F.M. Cap.

The Search for God is a valuable report on the high level encounters between Christian and non-Christian religions that have taken place in Asia over the past twenty years. Buhmann moves easily between theological dialogue and the day-to-day Christian and non-Christian experience in Asia. He gives a valuable overview of the progress of mutual understanding and enrichment that is happening there.

$7.95

THE HUMAN AND THE HOLY Asian Perspectives in Christian Theology

Emerito P. Nacpil and
Douglas J. Elwood, editors

The official report of the All-Asia Consultation on Theological Education for Christian Ministry in this volume addresses the relationship between authentic human life and the Asian sense of the sacred, the experience of nature, and the assumption of responsibility for society. Selected by the Occasional Bulletin as an Outstanding book for Mission Studies. $14.95

COMPASSIONATE AND FREE: AN ASIAN WOMAN'S THEOLOGY

by Marianne Katoppo

Marianne Katoppo, prize-winning novelist, journalist, and theologian explains why Asian Christian women want to seek their own identities rather than to borrow from other cultures or from men. "Draws heavily on the Bible and the contemporary realities of life for women in Asia. Beautifully illustrated!"—Asiaweek $4.95

ASIA'S STRUGGLE FOR FULL HUMANITY

Virginia Fabella, M.M., editor

The Asian Theological Conference held in Sri Lanka offers a unique contribution to the theological reflections of North Americans. This analysis of its accomplishments and documents "breathes hope and creativity." It is "one of the strongest challenges yet to entrenched western models of doing theology."—SIMON SMITH, S.J., Jesuit Missions $8.95

EASTERN PATHS AND THE CHRISTIAN WAY

by Paul Clasper

Paul Clasper shares his conviction that a sensitive appreciation of the Asian Paths of Hinduism, Theravada Buddhism and Zen can deepen and renew understanding of the Christian Way. "Sane, humane, and perceptive. A useful contribution to inter-faith dialogue."—HUSTON SMITH, Syracuse University $5.95

All titles quality paperbound/CIP

ORBIS BOOKS
Maryknoll, NY 10545

Write for Complete Orbis Catalog, 1980.

New from Columbia

Indonesia and the Philippines

American Interests in Island Southeast Asia

ROBERT PRINGLE. This candid study explores the nature of U.S. national interests in the two countries that encompass the great archipelago of Southeast Asia. Robert Pringle analyzes six specific policy areas—political stability, the importance of U.S. bases, human rights policy, American economic interests, the unique developmental problem of Java, and crucial environmental concerns. "By far the most important study of U.S. policy towards insular Southeast Asia yet published."—George McT. Kahin, Cornell University

312 pages, $30.00 cloth, $9.00 paper

Yokomitsu Riichi: Modernist

DENNIS KEENE. The novelist Yokomitsu Riichi occupied a central position in the Japanese literary world of the 1920s and 1930s, and is perhaps the most important counterpart in Japanese prose literature to the modernist writers at work in Europe during and following World War I. Concentrating on Yokomitsu's early modernist works, Dennis Keene demonstrates the overwhelming presence of the West in modern Japanese literature. Modern Asian Literature Series

232 pages, $20.00

The Syncretic Religion of Lin Chao-en

JUDITH A. BERLING. By richly documenting and analyzing the life and teachings of Lin Chao-en, a leader in the syncretic movement in Ming China, Judith A. Berling probes the broad question of the nature of syncretism and its function in the development and interaction of Chinese religious traditions. Neo-Confucian Studies; IASWR Series

360 pages, $20.00

A Chronicle of Gods and Sovereigns

Jinnō Shōtōki of Kitabatake Chikafusa

H. PAUL VARLEY, TRANSLATOR. Jinnō Shōtōki, or the Chronicle of the Direct Descent of the Gods and Sovereigns, is one of the most influential works of Japanese history and political theory. With its glorification of Japan's system of imperial succession, Kitabatake Chikafusa's fourteenth-century tract became the catechism of loyalty to the throne for generations of Japanese. H. Paul Varley has prepared the first complete English translation of this work, together with an extensive introduction to the period in which it was written. Translations from the Oriental Classics

320 pages, $22.50

To order send check or money order to Dept. JN at the address below, including $1.30 per order for postage and handling.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Address for orders:

136 South Broadway, Irvington, New York 10533

INSTITUTE OF EAST ASIAN STUDIES

MING AND QING HISTORICAL STUDIES IN THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA edited by Frederic Wakeman, Jr. (China Research Monograph No. 17).

More than just a report of the Delegation of Ming and Qing Historians to the People's Republic, this book is perhaps the first, certainly the finest introduction to the process of contemporary historical scholarship in the People's Republic today. More than this, it includes comprehensive surveys of major historical sites, museums, archives, universities and their facilities throughout north and central China. A volume written collectively by the entire delegation, it explores the state of research on topics such as peasant uprisings, the rise of capitalism, the Ming-Qing transition and Taiping historiography. A necessity for any Ming-Qing scholar and of interest to all sinophiles. Paper, about 200 pages, $8.00*

TRADITIONAL KOREAN LEGAL ATTITUDES by Bong Duck Chun, William Shaw, and Dai-kwon Choi (Korean Research Monograph No. 2)

This monograph presents the first attempt in English to provide an authoritative analysis of traditional Korean legal values and practice. The three authors discuss the influence of Confucianism, the impact of traditional social values on the development of modern legal institutions and the roles of law and legal institutions in traditional Korea. Together they indicate the tremendous challenge presented by western legal thought and the possibility that such thought has been a primary cause for the radical changes being wrought in Korea by modernization. Paper, $4.50*

U.S.-JAPAN ECONOMIC RELATIONS: A SYMPOSIUM ON CRITICAL ISSUES, Abegglen, Kato, Mulkern, Yawata, Hoadley and Narusawa (Research Papers and Policy Studies, No. 1)

This introductory volume of a new series sponsored directly by the Institute offers an in-depth exploration by both American and Japanese scholars and businessmen into the history and future of U.S.-Japan economic relations. Questions of structure, of coherence, of national characteristics and of the economic interdependence of these two nations are covered in this close analysis by six experts. This timely book will be of interest to anyone involved in the Far East-U.S. economic sphere including scholars, businessmen and labor interests. Paper, 57 pages, $5.00*

* California residents add appropriate sales tax. Orders for FIVE or more copies of any one title discounted 20%. ALL ORDERS MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY PAYMENT; please make checks payable to the Regents, University of California. Send to: Publications Office, INSTITUTE OF EAST ASIAN STUDIES, University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720.

REPRINTS OF IMPORTANT REFERENCE BOOKS

ASIATIC RESEARCHES

22 Vols.

SACRED BOOKS OF THE EAST

50 Vols.

LINGUISTIC SURVEY OF INDIA

11 Vols. 19 Parts

DHARAM SHASTRAS

6 Vols.

and

MANY OTHERS

Available from ready stock:

ORIENT BOOK DISTRIBUTORS
P.O. Box 100, LIVINGSTON, N.J. 07039

Write for our new catalog just published

New offerings in the Chinese Literature
in Translation Series

Irving Yucheng Lo, Joseph S. M. Lau,
Leo Ou-fan Lee, and Eugene Eoyang, editors

The Peony Pavilion

(Mudan Ting)

BY TANG XIANZU

TRANSLATED BY CYRIL BIRCH

One of the world's greatest love stories in its first complete English translation. Cyril Birch has captured all the elegance, lyricism, and subtle humor of this drama by Tang Xianzu, perhaps the finest of the Ming dramatists.

$22.50

The Poetry of Wang Wei

New Translations and Commentary

BY PAULINE YU

150 poems by one of the major poets of the Tang dynasty. An extensive introduction relates the work of Wang Wei to Chinese and Western literary traditions. Punctuated Chinese texts provided for all translations.

cloth $27.50 paper $9.95

Available at bookstores or send $1.50 postage and handling for first book, 25¢ for each additional book, to order from publisher.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS

TENTH AND MORTON STREETS, BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA 47405

The Drowning of an Old Cat and Other Stories

BY HWANG CHUN-MING

TRANSLATED BY HOWARD GOLDBLATT

"Hwang's refreshingly simple style, his skillful use of dialect, his humor, and above all, his deep concern for people whose lives are complicated by changes beyond their control all come through in Goldblatt's able translation." —Library Journal

cloth $27.50 paper $9.95

Now available in paperback
Literature of the People's Republic of China

EDITED BY KAI-YU HSU

CO-EDITOR, TING WANG

"... illuminate[s] the current state of Chinese society and will interest anyone wishing to gain a sense of the subject matter, quality, and range of contemporary Chinese literature." —The New Republic

"... gives us as nearly as possible the full range of rapidly changing China..." —The Washington Post Book World

cloth $37.50 paper $15.00

Rebels and Revolutionaries in North China, 1845–1945

Elizabeth J. Perry. Why do peasants rebel? In particular, why do some peasants rebel and not others? Starting from the fact that only in certain geographical areas does rebellion seem to recur persistently, the author examines three notable rebel movements in the region of Huai-pei: the Nien rebels of the 1850's and 1860's, the Red Spear Society of the Republican era, and the Communist movement of the 1930's and 1940's. The author also throws new light on the role of secret societies in peasant protest, and offers a fresh interpretation of the relationship between rebellion and revolution. $25.00

Long Engagements

Maturity in Modern Japan

David W. Plath. Increased longevity is reshaping the course of human maturity in modern societies, and Japan is no exception. Yet Japan remains culturally distant in her patterns of human relations. This book shows, through a series of vivid case studies, how the qualities of the mature person evolve across the adult years in contemporary middle-class Japan. It describes how a person and his consociates—those who grow older with him—sustain long engagements of interaction in which they shape the direction of one another's individual development. $17.50

The Poetic Memoirs of Lady Daibu

Translated, with an Introduction, by Phillip Tudor Harries. This is the first English translation of an evocative blend of poetry, prose, and autobiography covering almost 50 years in the life of a Japanese noblewoman. Composed between the late eleventh and early twelfth centuries, the memoirs are structured around some 350 intricately-woven poems that describe various incidents or remembrances in Lady Daibu's life. The work is of interest not only for its literary merit but also for its fascinating historical glimpses of the Genpei War and its intimate views of people previously known only through military tales and historical records. $17.50

Stanford University Press

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Thirty-third Annual Meeting of the Association for Asian Studies will be held at the Sheraton Centre, Toronto, Canada, March 13-15, 1981.

The Thirty-fourth Annual Meeting of the Association for Asian Studies will be held at the Palmer House, Chicago, Illinois, April 2-4, 1982.

China. Her people, her politics, her culture. Revealed by an American citizen of China.

By SIDNEY SHAPIRO. Arriving in China in 1947, Shapiro stayed, married, and became a citizen. He has lived and worked among the Chinese as a distinguished translator of foreign fiction for thirty years—and his account of those years provides unique insights into China's politics, economy, culture, and the daily lives and deepest feelings of her people. It is one of the most vivid and knowledgeable accounts to have reached the West—an enthralling personal chronicle of a place and time until recently completely hidden from Americans.

At all bookstores or send $5.95, plus $.75 for postage and handling to:
New American Library
P.O. Box 999, Bergenfield, N.J. 07621

MERIDIAN F542/$5.95

Write to the NAL Education Department at the following address for a free History and Social Studies catalog.

NEW AMERICAN LIBRARY

NAL
TIMES MIRROR

1633 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10019

ANNOUNCING A GREAT LEAP FORWARD
FOR CHINA STUDIES

THE
PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC
OF CHINA
1949-1979

A Documentary Survey

EDITED BY HAROLD C. HINTON

All major policy-related documents produced over the first thirty years of the People's Republic of China have now been assembled in this important new resource collection. Included are hundreds of official statements on ideology, politics, economics, and foreign policy in China from the War of Liberation through normalization of relations with the United States. All documents are unabridged, in English translation as released by the Chinese government. The editor provides introductory commentaries for each selection.

"Skillfully compiled and edited, this five-volume set covers both policy debates and power politics of the last three decades in China. Scholars of contemporary China will find it an indispensable tool for research and teaching."

Michael Y. M. Kau

Professor of Political Science, Brown University

"Most China specialists will want to have these volumes on their own personal shelves."

Richard L. Walker

James F. Byrnes Professor of International Relations
University of South Carolina

"A very valuable research aid for those doing serious work on China."

A. Doak Barnett

Senior Fellow, The Brookings Institution

5 vols. ca. 3,000 pp.
Available November 1980

8½" x 11"

ISBN 0-8420-2166-3

Prepublication price: $265.00

SR Scholarly Resources Inc.
104 Greenhill Avenue · Wilmington, Delaware 19805
Telephone: 302-654-7713

Save time searching for facts

If You Are Your Organization's Japan Specialist . . . You Need This Book

The second annual Yearbook of U.S.-Japan Economic Relations 1979 is an indispensable reference tool for anyone who needs to know the vital facts about U.S.-Japan economic relations. In a single volume you are provided current economic data and analyses of every major aspect of the bilateral relationship. Much of the information is the first available translation into English. The publisher's bilingual experts present it on a calendar year basis for easy comparison with other economic data.

The Yearbook is written for the generalist as well as the specialist. Businessmen, educators and government experts keep the Yearbook on their desks for immediate access to facts and figures on the world's two largest economies, and for background for speeches and reports.

There are four major sections:

- In depth analyses of major events and issues affecting U.S.-Japan economic relations during the previous calendar year, including: dialogue between the nations concerning the relationship; trade agreements; treaties and tariffs; non-tariff barriers; regulations; government reports; trade issues and business investments. In addition synopses are provided on the World Economy, U.S. Economy, and the Japanese Economy. Key indicators are detailed in colorful charts and graphs.

- 44 tables of statistical data on every significant aspect of the Japanese economy and the bilateral relationship. Emphasis is given to trade, balance of payments and investment data. Statistics on the Japanese economy important to understanding trade developments are presented, including: wages, productivity, prices and industrial production. Current data can be compared with figures for the previous four years.

- Handy 5-page chronology of significant developments in U.S.-Japan economic relations for the previous calendar year, including: government, administrative and diplomatic actions; major business developments in the U.S. and Japan; and official and unofficial actions affecting trade.

- Appendix containing the full text of major bilateral trade documents also includes details of all trade cases involving Japanese companies.

Only $6.00. 138 pages

Mail Check or Money Order to:
U.S.-Japan Trade Council
1717 K Street, N.W., Suite 211-B
Washington, D.C. 20006
(202) 296-5633

Yearbook of U.S.-Japan Economic Relations 1979

B

Please send me _____ book(s) at $6.00 each. _____ Enclosed is my check for $_____

NAME _____

ORGANIZATION _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

RECENT TITLES IN ECONOMICS

The Developing Economies and Japan

Lessons in Growth

Saburo Okita

An internationally known economist writes on the problems facing the developing countries of Asia, Africa, and Latin America in the 1980s and on the relevance to those countries of Japan's experience during its decades of modernization and growth.

ISBN 0-86008-271-7 292 pp. $14.50

Development and Diffusion of Technology

The International Conference on Business History 6

Edited by Akio Okochi and Hoshimi Uchida

This volume examines the development and diffusion of technology in the electrical and chemical industries of four countries—Japan, Germany, Britain, and the United States—between the 1870s and 1920s, the period of high industrialization for these industries.

ISBN 0-86008-270-9 about 240 pp. $25.50

The Labor Market in Japan

Selected Readings

Edited by Shunsaku Nishikawa

This volume describes and analyzes the labor market in Japan and the wage system that serves as its framework. Issues such as job mobility, unemployment, a shortened workweek, and extension of retirement age are among the many topics under study.

ISBN 0-86008-262-8 300 pp. $17.50

An Outline of Japanese Economic History 1603-1940

Major Works and Research Findings

Edited by Mikio Sumiya and Koji Taira

Selections from the works of Japan's leading economic historians are assembled in this volume to present an outline of Japan's economic institutions and the nation's development from a feudal land-based economy to a modern capitalist-industrial system.

ISBN 0-86008-240-7 386 pp. $27.50

UNIVERSITY OF TOKYO PRESS

7-3-1 Hongo, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo 113-91, Japan

REQUIRED READING

from Kodansha

— History and Literature in Paperback —

BLACK RAIN

by Masuji Ibuse
translated by John Bester
$4.95

BOTCHAN

by Natsume Sōseki
translated by Alan Turney
$3.95

A DARK NIGHT'S PASSING

by Naoya Shiga
translated by Edwin McClellan
$6.95

THE DARK ROOM

by Junnosuke Yoshiyuki
translated by John Bester
$3.95

A HAIKU JOURNEY

Bashō's Narrow Road to a Far Province
by Matsuo Bashō
translated by Dorothy Guyver Britton
$3.95

JAPAN THE BEAUTIFUL AND MYSELF

by Yasunari Kawabata
translated by Edward G. Seidensticker
$2.95

JAPAN'S LONGEST DAY

compiled by The Pacific
War Research Society
Foreword by Kazutoshi Hando
$4.95

THE LAKE

by Yasunari Kawabata
translated by Reiko Tsukimura
$3.95

THE WAITING YEARS

by Fumiko Enchi
translated by John Bester
$4.95

WAR CRIMINAL

The Life and Death of Hirota Koki
By Saburo Shiroyama
translated by John Bester
$4.95

For your reference shelf

THE KODANSHA JAPANESE-ENGLISH DICTIONARY

Shigeo Kawamoto,
editor-in-chief
flexible soft-binding
plastic cover with slipcase
4½" x 7"; 1250 pages;
60,000 entries
$19.50

THE KODANSHA ENGLISH-JAPANESE DICTIONARY

Shigeo Kawamoto,
editor-in-chief
flexible soft-binding
plastic cover with slipcase
4½" x 7"; 1557 pages;
90,000 entries
$19.50

A DICTIONARY OF JAPANESE & ENGLISH IDIOMATIC EQUIVALENTS

by Charles Corwin et al.
6" x 8"; 302 pages;
over 10,000 Japanese and English idiomatic words and phrases
$15.00

KODANSHA INTERNATIONAL

10 East 53rd St., New York, NY 10022

At fine bookstores or direct from publisher

prices subject to change without notice

Distributed in Canada by Fitzhenry & Whiteside, Ltd.

Sojourners and Settlers

CHINESE MIGRANTS IN HAWAII

Clarence E. Glick • $20.00

Among the many groups of Chinese who migrated in the nineteenth century, none found a more favorable situation than those who came to Hawaii. Between the extremes of enthusiastic welcome and bitter prejudice, the migrants made their way into the mainstream of Hawaiian life. Professor Glick skillfully describes the network of business, cultural, and organizational activities as well as the social apparatus of migrant existence. Illustrated with photographs, many of them rare.

CHINESE IN HAWAII

MULTI- CULTURAL LIVING

People and Cultures of Hawaii

A PSYCHOCULTURAL PROFILE

John F. McDermott, Jr., Wen-Shing Tseng, and Thomas W. Maretzki, editors • paperback $7.50

The population of contemporary Hawaii is a rich cultural and ethnic blend—Hawaiian, Caucasian, Chinese, Japanese, Portuguese, Okinawan, Korean, Filipino, Samoan, Vietnamese, and Hmong. For each ethnic group, the book describes cultural identity and group characteristics in the light of its history, pattern of immigration and assimilation, and present-day social situation.

Kodomo no tame ni—For the Sake of the Children

THE JAPANESE AMERICAN EXPERIENCE IN HAWAII

Dennis M. Ogawa, assisted by Glen Grant • paperback $8.95

“A most useful book that is both readable and informative. A blend of primary materials is included with contemporary articles and even poetry. Recommended for purchase as the best single volume on the subject yet to appear in print.” —Choice

“The strength in this work comes from Ogawa’s skillful attention to the basic questions of ethnic identity and issues of population segregation and assimilation. A notable study.” —The Booklist

NOW IN PAPER

FACTUAL FICTION AND THE SEQUEL

The Stone of Kannon

O. A. Bushnell • $10.95

“In 1868, the first group of Japanese contract laborers arrived in Hawaii to work on British- and American-owned sugar plantations. Their story is well told in this carefully researched historical novel that brims with engaging minor characters and intriguing glimpses of late-19th century Japan and Hawaii. Simple, quiet, but always interesting, Bushnell’s tale is related in the proverb- and sentiment-laden style of Japanese plays and novels of the period.” —Publishers Weekly

The Water of Kane

O. A. Bushnell • $12.95

The sequel to The Stone of Kannon, this book weaves the web of experiences and encounters in Ishi’s transition from migrant to settler. “[Bushnell’s] portrait of Ishi as he comes to accept the joys and sorrows of life and adjusts to the odd mix of cultures and beliefs in his new land is as striking as it is poignant.” —Publishers Weekly

The University Press
of Hawaii

2840 Kolowalu Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96822