

Psychiatric Bulletin

The Journal of Trends in Psychiatric Practice

October 1995

Volume 19 Number 10

Editorial

Violence on psychiatric in-patient units: what can be done? Z. Atakan 593

Original papers

Social deprivation, ethnicity and violent incidents on acute psychiatric wards.
J. D. Sheehan, T. Hardie and J. P. Watson 597

The extent and effects of violence among psychiatric in-patients. C. Thomas, A. Bartlett and G. C. Mezey 600

Reducing violence on a secure ward. A. Mortimer 605

Management of violence among psychiatric in-patients. M. Agarwal and M. Roberts 609

Long-term care: reducing morbidity in residents and staff. M. Evans, H. Burgess and E. Gore-Rees 612

The crisis team as part of comprehensive local services. D. Beer, S. Cope, J. Smith and R. Smith 616

Complaints against psychiatrists: a five year study. K. Ingram and L. Roy 620

What do day hospital attenders really want? D. Riordan and L. Appleby 623

Employment of counsellors and mental health professionals by fundholding general practices. T. I. R. Mutale 627

Thirty years of in-patient consultation-liaison psychiatry at Guy's. B. Lucas and H. Doyle 631

Education

Attitudes to and awareness of flexible training in psychiatry in Birmingham. K. Hofberg 635

The history of psychiatry

"John Barleycorn." Jack London's 'Alcoholic Memoirs'. W. J. Stanley 638

Wisdom for psychiatrists

Who am I? Self or self-less? L. Culliford 640

Psychiatry and the media

The coverage of psychiatry in the Irish print media. D. Meagher, A. Newman, M. Fee and P. Casey 642

Briefings

An encounter with Albania's best known drug addict. P. M. Fleming 645

Correspondence

648

Obituaries

653

Miscellany

655

Forthcoming events

656