

Congress on Research in Dance

2010 CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

Embodying Power: Work over Time

43rd Annual CORD Conference with
American Society for Theatre Research
Theatre Library Association

November 18–21, 2010
The Renaissance Seattle Hotel
Seattle, Washington

Congress on Research in Dance

2010 CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

Embodying Power: Work over Time

43rd Annual CORD Conference with
American Society for Theatre Research
Theatre Library Association

November 18–21, 2010
The Renaissance Seattle Hotel
Seattle, Washington

Table of Contents

43/51 • SPRING 2011

ABSTRACTS iv

From the CORD President, CORD/ASTR Welcoming

MARTA SAVIGLIANO 1

Embodying Animal, Racial, Theatrical, and Commercial Power in The Lion King

KEN CERNIGLIA and AUBREY LYNCH II 3

Recreating the Eye of the Beholder: Dancing and Spectacular Display in Early Modern English Theatre

ERIKA T. LIN 10

Power (Empowerment) through the Body, Self, and Black Male Identity in Contemporary Theatrical Modern Dance

CARL PARIS 20

Price of Gold and Light: Power and Politics in Hey Ananta Punya

MUNJULIKA RAHMAN 29

Power Working through/on Bodies in the UK

JANELLE REINELT 35

Shampoo Dancing and Scars–(Dis)Embodiment in Afro-Contemporary Choreography in South Africa

GERARD M. SAMUEL 40

Practice as Research: Foundations for a Community of Knowledge

BEN SPATZ 48

El Güegüence, post-Sandinista Nicaragua, and the Resistant Politics of Dancing

E. J. WESTLAKE 58

Power and the Body: Revisiting Dance and Theatre Aesthetic of Resistance in the Academy

PRAISE ZENENGA 65

SESSION OVERVIEW 70

2010 CORD AWARD RECIPIENTS 93