
STARKE'S INTRODUCTION TO INTERNATIONAL LAW

Fifth Edition

By J. G. STARKE, Q.C., B.C.L.(OXON.), Barrister-at-Law; One of Her Majesty's Counsel for the State of New South Wales; Fellow of the Institute of Advanced Studies, Canberra; formerly Member of Legal Section, League of Nations Secretariat, Geneva; sometime Vinerian Law Scholar, Oxford.

International law is an increasingly interesting and important subject and this essentially practical introduction, now appearing in an up-to-date edition, is more useful than ever to lawyers, students and diplomats. Major international events such as the Cuba Blockade, the Congo situation and the U-2 flight are all discussed and references to the E.E.C. are incorporated. Alterations necessitated by, for example, developments in State activities in outer space, the Treaty of Antarctica and the Convention of Diplomatic Relations, are also included.

SUTTON AND SHANNON ON CONTRACTS

Sixth Edition

By K. W. WEDDERBURN, M.A., LL.B., Barrister-at-Law, Lecturer in Law in the University of Cambridge, Fellow of Clare College, Cambridge.

This excellent work is probably the best introduction to the law of contract available today and has gained a very wide reputation. Considerable rearrangement and rewriting have been undertaken for the new edition and in general the statement of the law is revised up to April 1963. A brief Introduction on Modern Problems of Contract has been added as well as two Appendices, setting out certain sections of the Sale of Goods Act, 1893, and summarising recent proposals made by the Molony Committee and the Law Reform Committee.

PAYNE'S CARRIAGE OF GOODS BY SEA

Seventh Edition

By E. R. HARDY IVAMY, LL.B., PH.D., Barrister-at-Law, Professor of Law in the University of London.

This readable and reliable guide has now been brought up to date to take account of the extensive changes in the law which have occurred over the last decade. Modifications occasioned by the Merchant Shipping (Liability of Ship-owners and Others) Act, 1958, are incorporated, and many important decisions of the courts are noted. The York-Antwerp Rules are now dealt with in the body of the book and the Baltimore form of Charter-party is included in an Appendix. This is an invaluable book for all those seriously concerned with shipping law.
