

Canadian Registry Network
Réseau canadien de registres

The Canadian Registry Network consists of 9 registries which seek to share science and connect researchers everywhere. By working together on projects, the Canadian Registry Network specifically aims to improve the design, quality and impact of registries. The first project on which the Canadian Registry Network collaborated is the Neurological Registries Best Practice Guidelines and Implementation Toolkit project.

www.canadianregistrynetwork.org

Correspondence: Lawrence Korngut
Department of Clinical Neurosciences
University of Calgary
Email: lawrence.korngut@albertahealthservices.ca