AIMS

The Leiden Journal of International Law has been established to promote the understanding of the principles and purposes of international law and to describe current developments. The Journal aims to attract contributions from students, scholars and practitioners. Particularly, attention will be paid to publishing articles written by promising students.

Editorial policy

The Journal is published by the Leiden Journal of International Law Foundation. The Editorial Staff is comprised of students and faculty members of Leiden University. The Journal is not an official publication of Leiden University. The opinions of the authors do not necessarily reflect the opinion of the Journal or any of its members. The Journal does not accept any responsibility for the views expressed therein.
