Series B — Applied Mathematics

Volume 40 Part 1
JULY 1998

A quasi-Newton approach to identification of a parabolic system
Wenhuan Yu 1

Stability in paradigm biological systems
Andrew J. Rixon, Craig R. Johnson and Alan S. Jones 23

Analytical and numerical results for flow and shock formation in two-layer gravity currents
P. J. Montgomery and T. B. Moodie 35

Electrophysiology of a leaky cable model for coupled neurons
Roman R. Poznanski 59

Analytic results for roots of two irrational functions in elastic wave propagation
L. M. Brock 72

Jensen's inequality for distributions possessing higher moments, with application to sharp bounds for Laplace–Stieltjes transforms
B. Guljaš, C. E. M. Pearce and J. Pečarić 80

Supplementary variable method applied to the MAP/G/1 queueing system
Bong Dae Choi, Gang Uk Hwang and Dong Hwan Han 86

An analysis of local energy and phase congruency models in visual feature detection
Y. K. Aw, Robyn Owens and John Ross 97

Neutrally stable wave motions in thermally stratified Poiseuille–Couette flow
James P. Denier and Andrew P. Bassom 123

The Journal of the Australian Mathematical Society began publication in 1959, and from 1975 appears in two series, Series A (Pure Mathematics and Statistics) and Series B (Applied Mathematics). Series B is published in volumes comprising four quarterly parts. Information about Series A and other publications of the Society may be found on the inside back cover.

It is the editorial policy of Series B to accept papers in any field of applied mathematics and related mathematical sciences. Novel applications of mathematics in real situations are especially welcomed. All papers should include some indication of applicability, and an introduction that can be understood by non-specialist readers from the whole applied mathematical community.

Manuscripts (three copies) for publication should be sent to the editor or to an appropriate associate editor at the address given above. Such action is a representation by the author that the manuscript has not been copyrighted or published, and that it is not being considered for publication elsewhere.

Authors are asked to read the section "Preparation of Manuscripts" on the outside cover.

Irrespective of the number of authors, 50 free offprints of each copy are provided; additional offprints may be ordered at the expense of the authors.

Excessive costs incurred by the Society through corrections to or withdrawal of articles may be charged to the authors concerned.

Journal of the Australian Mathematical Society, Series B—Applied Mathematics (ISSN 0334-2700) is published quarterly for A$210 (Members A$32) per annum by the Australian Mathematical Society, Mathematics Department, Australian National University, ACT 0200, Australia. Periodicals postage is paid at Ann Arbor, Michigan 48106, USA. Postmaster: Send address change notices to Dr A. Howe, Journal of the Australian Mathematical Society, Mathematics Department, Australian National University, ACT 0200, Australia.
