

Announcement

The Urban History Association is offering free membership for 1992 to graduate students. This offer is open to individuals in the humanities, social sciences, architecture, public history, historic preservation, and related fields whose research topics or professional training involve urban history. To obtain further information, please write to: Professor Leonard Wallock, Department of History, Hunter College/CUNY, 695 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10021.