

Announcing the 30th Anniversary Volumes

The Editors of the Journal are pleased to announce that they are planning to commemorate the first thirty years of publication (1941–1971) of the FEQ-JAS by the publication in 1972 of three volumes of distinguished articles. Each volume (South and Southeast Asia; China and Inner Asia; Japan and Korea) will include those articles which have been selected by boards of distinguished senior scholars as having permanent value. At present, the process of selection for these chrestomathies has been completed. Further information will be furnished in future “Communications” sections of the Journal.

Contents of the Forthcoming Issue

(Tentative)

A SYMPOSIUM ON JAPANESE NATIONALISM

Some Recent Approaches to Japanese Nationalism

Kenneth B. Pyle

Restorationism in the Political Thought of Yamagata Daini

Tetsuo Najita

Kōtoku Shūsui and Nationalism

Fred Notehelfer

Nagai Ryūtarō and the “White Peril”

Peter Duus

The Significance of Nationalism in Modern Japanese Thought

Matsumoto Sannosuke

Nationalism as Intellectual History

Harry Harootunian

also . . .

Symbols of Evil in Buddhism

James W. Boyd

Phan Boi Chau: Asian Revolutionary in a Changing World

William J. Duiker

The Chinese Student Movement of 1945–1949

Jessie G. Lutz

Nirala and the Renaissance of Hindi Poetry

David Rubin