Psychiatric Bulletin of the Royal College of Psychiatrists

Editors: ALAN KERR and SIDNEY BLOCH
Manager: ELAINE MILLEN

Notice to contributors

The Editors welcome articles of general interest to psychiatrists. Two thousand words is a good length; however, longer articles will be considered. Tables, diagrams and extended references should generally not be included. Please submit three copies, typed double-spaced. Correspondence on subjects of topical interest is also welcome. Contributions are accepted for publication on the condition that their substance has not been published or submitted for publication elsewhere. The views expressed in articles published in the Psychiatric Bulletin (except official College material) are the author's own and do not necessarily represent College policy.

With this issue Sidney Bloch regretfully resigns from his co-editorship of the Bulletin; he will be taking up a position with the University of Melbourne in the New Year. He will maintain a link, however, by reporting periodically from "down under".

He and Alan Kerr have very much valued their colleagueship and "teamwork" over the past eight years and hope that this is reflected in the pages of the Bulletin. They extend a cordial welcome to Greg Wilkinson who becomes the new co-editor from the January 1989 issue.

The Psychiatric Bulletin of the Royal College of Psychiatrists is published monthly by the Royal College of Psychiatrists, 17 Belgrave Square, London SW1X 8PG. All contents © Royal College of Psychiatrists, 1988, unless otherwise stated
