

ReCALL

---

Volume 11 · Number 2 · September 1999

CONTENTS

Introduction William Haworth	3
Second language acquisition through email interaction Farid Aitsiselmi	4
Juggling hot potatoes: decisions and compromises in creating authoring tools for the Web Stewart Arneil and Martin Holmes	12
Creating a virtual language lab: an EFL experience at National Taiwan Ocean University Hao-Jan Howard Chen	20
Web support for distance learning in the field of translation Tim Connell	31
Proposal for an online language course Susan A Curtis, Joanne Duchastel and Nebojsa Radic	38
Adding a new perspective to distance (language) learning and teaching – the tutor's perspective Mirjam Hauck and Bernard Haezewindt	46
Real-time audio and email for fluency: promoting distance language learners' aural and oral skills via the Internet Markus Kötter, Lesley Shield and Anne Stevens	55
Implementing institutional change for languages: online collaborative learning environments at Coventry University Marina Orsini-Jones	61

Contents

Concordancing with students using an 'off-the-Web' corpus Jeremy Whistle	74
Conference Report IALL '99 Conference	81