ABRAHAM KUYPER

A Centennial Reader

EDITED BY JAMES D. BRATT

A theologian, politician, journalist, university founder, and seminal thinker in the history of modern Calvinism, Abraham Kuyper (1837–1920) is one of the most remarkable men in the history of Reformed Christianity. This anthology gathers sixteen key writings by Kuyper never before available in English. Editor James Bratt provides helpful explanatory notes and an introduction to each piece. Photographs, cartoons, and short excerpts from some of Kuyper's better-known works also make this an attractive volume that will stand as the premier Kuyper reader for years to come.

CREATING A CHRISTIAN WORLDVIEW

Abraham Kuyper's Lectures on Calvinism

PETER S. HESLAM

"Heslam's study of Kuyper's Lectures on Calvinism gives a clear summary and penetrating analysis of the contents of the Stone Lectures and provides an informative survey of their theological, philosophical, and sociopolitical backgrounds and their historical-cultural context. . . . [Heslam's] portrait of Kuyper and his thought is vivid, stimulating, and always interesting. Must reading for freshmen and for experienced Kuyper researchers alike."

"This is a well-crafted and keenly focused overview of Saint Hildegard's life and thought. The contributors adhere to the highest standards of scholarship, write with engagement and clarity, offer new insights, provide a good sense of earlier interpretations, and furnish both provocative insights and excellent clues for further exploration into the subject. This truly is a superior work."—Grover Zinn, Oberlin College

New Books from Ashgate in Church History –

The Magnificent Ride The First Reformation in Hussite Bohemia

Thomas A. Fudge
St Andrews Studies in Reformation History

Rejecting the idea that the Hussite movement was merely a precursor to the reformations of the 16th century, this book advances the argument that the "magnificent ride" was, in fact, the first reformation.
 ISBN: 1-85928-372-1 May 1998 $84.95 336 pp.

The Church in the Medieval Town

Edited by T.R. Slater and Gervase Rosser

This book examines the urban activities of the medieval institutional church which did so much to shape the origins and development of medieval English towns.

ISBN: 1-84014-213-8 April 1998 $84.95 324 pp.

Christianity and Missions, 1450-1800

Edited by J.S. Cummins
An Expanding World: The European Impact on World History, 1450-1800, Vol. 28

Focusing on the transformation of European Christianity into a world-wide religion, this volume shows how new ideologies of mission were developed, and how perceptions have continued to evolve.

ERASMUS, the Anabaptists, and the Great Commission ABRAHAM FRIESEN

"Friesen presents the first thoroughly analytical study of the influence of Erasmus on the Anabaptists, showing how Erasmus's interpretation of Christ's Great Commission provides the key to understanding the core of Anabaptist belief and practice. Friesen shows that interpreters of Anabaptism and modern descendants of early Anabaptists, torn between rigid biblicism and rationalist theology, have often paid scant attention to Erasmus since the 'prince of humanists' did not fit into either mold."

— PETER J. KLASSEN

"All students of Anabaptism are indebted to Friesen for sharing his meticulous research into the indebtedness of the Anabaptists to Erasmus. For anyone interested in the origins and/or the intellectual sources of sixteenth-century Anabaptism, this book is indispensable."

— WILLIAM R. ESTEP JR.

"A world-class historian here makes a contribution that will be of great interest not only to his fellow historians but also to biblical scholars. . . . A sumptuous feast for biblical scholars, historians, and theologians alike!"

— ROBERT H. GUNDRY

THE READING AND PREACHING OF THE SCRIPTURES

in the Worship of the Christian Church

Volume 1: THE BIBLICAL PERIOD

---

Volume 2: THE PATRISTIC AGE

Hughes Oliphant Old

The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times.

"Ecumenical in breadth, magisterial in authority, and pastoral in intentionality, Old's multivolume history of preaching is a landmark in American intellectual history. Old views preaching as an act of worship, and his own prodigious scholarship likewise stands in service to God. Old has bequeathed to the church of the twenty-first century the definitive history of preaching, a spiritual feast for scholars and preachers alike for years and years to come."

—JAMES F. KAY

"I consider this series by Old to be most timely. The current unfortunate trend to dumb down worship with less Scripture and with popular topical sermons needs the corrective offered in this comprehensive and readable work."
