English Grammar

An Outline

RODNEY HUDDLESTON

This elementary textbook provides a succinct step by step account of all the most important and central English constructions and categories. It draws on the descriptive and theoretical advances made in modern linguistics, but any significant departures from traditional grammar are pointed out. An important feature of the book is that it explains the major grammatical categories at both a language-particular level (specifically for English) and a general level.

Transformational Grammar

A First Course

ANDREW RADFORD

Andrew Radford's new textbook is principally for students with little or no background in syntax who need a lively and up-to-date introduction to contemporary work on transformational grammar. It covers four main topics – the goals of linguistic theory, syntactic structure, the nature and role of the lexicon, and the function of transformations and the principles governing their application.

Grammatical Theory in Western Europe 1500-1700

Trends in Vernacular Grammar II

G. A. PADLEY

This is the final part of the late Professor Padley's unique and comprehensive opus on grammatical theory in Western Europe, 1500-1700. This volume investigates grammars written by authors who followed the dictates of usage and took account of the inevitable variations introduced by vernacular speakers.

From First Words to Grammar

Individual Differences and Dissociable Mechanisms

ELIZABETH BATES, INGE BRETHERTON and LYNN SNYDER

What constitutes 'normal' language development? From First Words to Grammar presents the first comprehensive study of this process in a sample of children large enough to permit a systematic analysis of individual differences in style and rate of development. The results throw important new light on how we view the structure of language, and its breakdown in normal and abnormal conditions.

Linguistics: The Cambridge Survey

- Volume I – Linguistic Theory: Foundations
- Volume II – Linguistic Theory: Extensions and Implications
- Volume II – Language: Psychological and Biological Aspects
- Volume IV – Language: The Socio-cultural Context

Edited by FREDERICK J. NEWMAYER

Department of Linguistics, University of Washington

Linguistics: The Cambridge Survey is a comprehensive introduction to current research in all branches of the field of linguistics, from syntactic theory to ethnography of speaking, from signed language to the mental lexicon, from language acquisition to discourse analysis. Each chapter has been written by a specialist particularly distinguished in his or her field who has accepted the challenge of reviewing the current issues and future prospects in sufficient depth for the scholar and with sufficient clarity for the student.

Each volume can be read independently and has a particular focus. Volume 1 covers the internal structure of the language faculty itself, while Volume II considers the evidence for, and the implications of, a generativist approach to language. Psycholinguistics and neurolinguistics are covered in Volume III, and Volume IV concentrates on sociolinguistics and the allied fields of anthropological linguistics and discourse and conversation analysis.

Several of the chapters concentrate on the interface between different aspects of linguistic theory or the boundaries between linguistic theory and other disciplines. Thus in both its scope and in its approach the Survey is a unique and fundamental work of reference. It fulfils the principal aim of providing a wealth of information, insight and ideas that will excite and challenge all readers with an interest in linguistics.

'... an ambitious and timely project ... impressive scope and high level of competence of individual contributions'

Noam Chomsky

'... these books are simply excellent. The contributions are informed, up to date and lucid... the editor is to be congratulated for the high standards that are maintained throughout. The tremendous intellectual energy and the excitement of the field come through strongly.'

Advances in Applied Psycholinguistics

Volume 1 Disorders of First-Language Development

Volume 2 Reading, Writing and Language Learning

Edited by SHELDON ROSENBERG

These volumes provide high level, up-to-date reviews of research, theory and practice in applied psycholinguistics. Volume 1 considers the major problems in first-language development, including specific language impairment, mental retardation, deafness, learning disability and brain damage. Volume 2, on major issues in reading, writing and language learning, includes work on linguistics in reading and writing ability, mental retardation, writing processes, second language learning and bilingualism.

Meaning and Force

The Pragmatics of Performative Utterances

FRANÇOIS RECANATI

Challenging much of the work of the speech-act theorists Austin and Searle, this major contribution to the philosophy of language argues that no utterance can be fully understood simply in terms of its linguistic meaning, but that only a contextual inference can provide an adequate framework.

Essays on the Ritual Languages of Eastern Indonesia

Edited by JAMES J. FOX

This collection of essays is an original and major contribution to the study of oral composition and ritual communication, and in particular to the use of 'parallelism'. It is the first book to compare in detail a number of living traditions of parallel composition.

LANGUAGE AND PROBLEMS OF KNOWLEDGE

The Managua Lectures
Noam Chomsky

Language and Problems of Knowledge is Noam Chomsky's most accessible statement on the nature, origins, and current concerns of the field of linguistics. He frames the lectures with four fundamental questions: What do we know when we are able to speak and understand a language? How is this knowledge acquired? How do we use this knowledge? What are the physical mechanisms involved in the representation, acquisition, and use of this knowledge?

Cloth £17.95 0-262-03133-7

AN ESSAY ON STRESS

Morris Halle and Jean-Roger Vergnaud

An Essay on Stress is a major contribution to the field of phonology. Halle and Vergnaud present a universal theory for the characterization of the stress patterns of words and phrases encountered in the languages of the world.

LECTURES ON LANGUAGE CONTACT

Ilse Lehiste

A modified version of the author's first year graduate course on language contact, these concise lectures provide factual information on the concept of interference, bilingualism, language convergence, pidgins and creoles and other topics of importance to sociolinguistic studies.

Lectures on Binding and Empty Categories
Howard Lasnik & Juan Uriagereka

"Howard Lasnik's lectures . . . are a model of clarity and insight. Presupposing only some limited acquaintance with linguistic theory, they lead the reader, carefully and lucidly, to the borders of current research. [It] should prove extremely useful for intermediate or advanced courses, and can be read with considerable profit by anyone concerned with the nature of language or engaged in research in linguistics." — Noam Chomsky, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

THE LINGUISTICS ASSOCIATION

The Linguistics Association of Great Britain was founded in 1959 to promote the study of linguistics and to provide for its members both a forum for discussion and facilities for co-operation in furtherance of their interest in linguistics. The Association holds annual spring and autumn meetings, at which original papers are presented in plenary sessions and in workshops devoted to special interests.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

President: Professor Ruth M. Kempson, Dept. of Linguistics, School of Oriental and African Studies, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HP.

Honorary Secretary: Dr Richard Coates, School of Cognitive Sciences, University of Sussex, Falmer, Brighton BN1 9QN.

Membership Secretary: Mrs Annabel Cormack, Dept. of Linguistic Science, University of Reading, Whiteknights, Reading, RG6 2AA.

Meetings Secretary: Dr Jennifer Coates, Dept. of English, Southlands College, Roehampton Institute, London SW19 5NN.

Persons interested in linguistics are eligible for election as members, subject to the approval of the Committee. Subscribing members may receive the Journal of Linguistics at the special rate of £15.00 per annum. Application forms for membership may be obtained from the membership Secretary, Dr Andrew Crompton, Dept. of Linguistics, University of Nottingham, University Park, Nottingham NE7 2RD.

Treasurer: Dr Ronald Cann, Dept. of Linguistics, University of Edinburgh, Adam Ferguson Building, 40 George Square, Edinburgh EH8 9LL.

Assistant Secretary: Robyn Carston, Dept. of Phonetics and Linguistics, University College London, Gower Street, London WC1E 6BT.

BLN Editor: Dr Colin Biggs, Dept. of Linguistic Science, The University, Whiteknights, Reading RG6 2AA.

BRITISH NATIONAL COMMITTEE FOR LINGUISTICS

The Chairman is Professor John Lyons, Trinity Hall, Cambridge, CB2 1TJ, and the LAGB representatives are Dr Richard Coates, School of Social Sciences, University of Sussex, Falmer, Brighton BN1 9QN and Professor J. R. Hurford, Dept. of Linguistics, University of Edinburgh, Adam Ferguson Building, George Square, Edinburgh EH8 9LL.
