ASA Annual Meeting Papers Collection 1993-1996 CD-ROM

To mark the 40th anniversary of the African Studies Association we are trying an exciting experiment. This year instead of releasing the Annual Meeting Papers Collection on photocopy, microfilm, and microfiche we are putting it on CD-ROM. Not only are we putting the 1996 papers on the CD-ROM, but we are packaging them together with the papers of the 1993, 1994, and 1995 Annual Meetings. Altogether that is 514 papers, close to 11,500 pages of scanning in all. In the past each annual collection was priced at $375 per set, hardly something an individual could afford.

This collection is so affordable that we will no longer make these papers available as individual photocopies. Now every African Studies Program, regardless of its size, can make this entire collection available to faculty and students for only $99.00. That is almost a 75% savings over the price of yesterday's technology.

The Annual Meeting Papers Collection was started in 1971 when the ASA Archives-Libraries Committee took on the daunting task of assembling as many of the papers as they could find. What resulted was a collection of about one thousand papers from the 1960, 1965-1974 meetings. Since that time each year the Association has asked members to contribute papers to the collection. The annual collection has grown into one of the best sources of current thinking in African Studies available today. It is also a valuable collection from a historical point of view since it provides an accurate "snap shot" of the thinking of many leading Africanists in a given year.

The 1993-1996 Annual Meeting Papers Collection CD-ROM puts four years of Africanist Scholarship at your fingertips. The CD-ROM is cross-platform and can be opened either with Macintosh or Microsoft operating systems, all the software needed is included on the disk.

We think that you will agree that the collection is a remarkable set of papers and an absolute must for your personal library, not to mention a necessity for your institution's library.

The Collection is attractively priced and a 20% discount is available to ASA members. Members who have contributed to the 1934-1996 Collection will receive a 50% discount off the regular individual price of $65.

Exploring Africa's rich heritage

The Journal of Modern African Studies

The Journal of Modern African Studies offers a quarterly survey of politics, economics, and related topics in contemporary Africa. The main emphasis is upon the peoples and policies, the problems and progress of this dynamic and disparate continent; upon the many societies that are evolving rather than the essential characteristics of the old; and upon the present, rather than the past. The best current work is presented from specialists in different academic disciplines. Editorial policy avoids commitment to any political viewpoint or ideology, but aims at a fair examination of controversial issues in order to promote a deeper understanding of what is happening in Africa today. The journal also includes an invaluable book review section.

The Journal of African History

The Journal of African History publishes articles and book reviews ranging widely over the African past, from the late Stone Age to the 1960s. In recent years increasing prominence has been given to economic and social history and several articles have explored themes which are also of growing interest to historians of other regions such as: gender roles, demography, health and hygiene, propaganda, legal ideology, labour histories, nationalism and resistance, custodial institutions, the construction of ethnicity, ideas of time, and photographs as historical sources. Articles on slavery, the slave trade and the interpretation of oral tradition are also included.

Subscriptions

Volume 38 in 1997: March, July and November.
£76 for institutions; £40 for individuals; £32 for students.
