Editors

Alicia Schrikker, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Carolien Stolte, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Review Editor

Laura Cruz, Western Carolina University, USA

For over thirty three years Itinerario has provided a platform for scholars researching the history of European expansion in the context of colonialism between c.1500 and 1950. Contributors are encouraged to take a global perspective and consider the international interaction of European countries from both a Western and non-Western viewpoint, analysing the impact of this interaction on World History in general. The journal also publishes a highly respected book review section, which covers around 100 monographs per volume.

Central European History

Published for the Conference Group for Central European History of the American Historical Association

Editor-in-Chief

Kenneth Ledford, Case Western Reserve University, USA

Associate Editor (Book Reviews)

Catherine Epstein, Amherst College, USA

Central European History offers articles, review essays, and book reviews that range widely through the history of Germany, Austria, and other German-speaking regions of Central Europe from the medieval era to the present. All topics and approaches to history are welcome, whether cultural, social, political, diplomatic, intellectual, economic, and military history, as well as historiography and methodology. Contributions that treat new fields, such as post-1945 and post-1989 history, maturing fields such as gender history, and less-represented fields such as medieval history and the history of the Habsburg lands are especially desired. The journal thus aims to be the primary venue for scholarly exchange and debate among scholars of the history of Central Europe.

Contemporary European History covers the history of Eastern and Western Europe, including the United Kingdom, from 1918 to the present. By combining a wide geographical compass with a relatively short time span, the journal achieves both range and depth in its coverage. It is open to all forms of historical inquiry - including cultural, economic, international, political and social approaches - and welcomes comparative and transnational analysis. One issue per year explores a broad theme under the guidance of a guest editor. The journal regularly features contributions from scholars outside the Anglophone community and acts as a channel of communication between European historians throughout the continent and beyond it.

Africa Bibliography

Editor

Terry Barringer, Wolfson College, Cambridge, United Kingdom

This large and authoritative guide to works in African studies has been published under the auspices of the International African Institute annually since 1984. From 2011 a fully searchable, consolidated bibliography will be available to subscribers online.

The Africa Bibliography includes a wide range of material: monographs, chapters in edited volumes, journal articles, and pamphlets. It covers all regions of Africa, including North Africa. It lists works published in English as well as a number of other languages: Portuguese, French, Italian, German, Swahili, Spanish and Afrikaans. The bibliography categorises by region, country and subject. It includes an author index and a detailed thematic index. Publications principally in the social and environmental sciences, humanities and arts, and some items from the medical, biological and natural sciences are recorded.

The bibliography includes materials on Africa published in non-specialist scholarly journals, in addition to specialist Africa publications. As an annual publication, it records the previous year's published work in its field, with provision for retrospective inclusion of earlier items. It is prepared in association with the International African Institute's journal Africa.

Rural History

Economy, Society, Culture

Editors

Liz Bellamy, University of East Anglia, UK

Keith D. M. Snell, University of Leicester, UK

Tom Williamson, University of East Anglia, UK

Rural History is well known as a stimulating forum for interdisciplinary exchange. Its definition of rural history ignores traditional subject boundaries to encourage the cross-fertilisation that is essential for an understanding of rural society. It stimulates original scholarship and provides access to the best of recent research. While concentrating on the English-speaking world and Europe, the journal is not limited in geographical coverage. Subject areas include: agricultural history; historical ecology; folklore; popular culture and religion; rural literature; landscape history, archaeology and material culture; vernacular architecture; ethnography, anthropology and rural sociology; the study of women in rural societies; relationships between the urban and the rural; and the politics of rural societies. The journal accommodates varying disciplinary reference systems, and publishes book reviews and review articles.

Rural History is now indexed in the Thomson Reuters JCR

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

57th Annual Meeting of the African Studies Association

Rethinking Violence, Reconstruction, and Reconciliation

NOVEMBER 20-23, 2014 • JW MARRIOTT INDIANAPOLIS HOTEL

DEADLINE FOR PROPOSAL SUBMISSION:

March 15, 2014

PROGRAM CHAIRS

Odile Cazenave, Boston University

Clifton Crais, Emory University

About the Meeting

We are soliciting proposals for papers, panels, and roundtables. Presentations may focus on the theme of "Rethinking Violence, Reconstruction, and Reconciliation" or on broader social science, humanities, and applied themes relating to Africa. We strongly encourage the submission of formed panels. You can find more information on the theme and the call for proposals at the ASA website, www.africanstudies.org.

How to Submit a Proposal

Instructions for submitting proposals can be found online on the ASA website, www.africanstudies.org.

About the African Studies Association

Established in 1957, the African Studies Association is the largest organization in the world devoted to enhancing the exchange of information about Africa. Our members include scholars, students, teachers, activists, development professionals, policy makers, donors and many others. We encourage interdisciplinary interactions with Africa. We provide access to pathbreaking research and key debates in African studies. We bring together people with scholarly and other interests in Africa through our annual meeting and seek to broaden professional opportunities in the field of African studies. The organization publishes two leading interdisciplinary journals on Africa, African Studies Review and History in Africa and promotes an informed understanding of Africa to the public and in educational institutions as well as to businesses, media, and other communities that have interests in Africa.

For general questions regarding the meeting and/or registration please contact members@africanstudies.org. For questions regarding the submission process, guidelines, or program theme please contact asameeting2014@gmail.com.

We welcome your participation in this exciting conference and in the ASA!

Organizations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions. For all other use, permission should be sought from Cambridge or from the American Branch of Cambridge University Press.

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Manuscripts are considered for publication on the understanding that they are not currently under consideration elsewhere and that the material – in substance as well as form – has not been previously published. Two copies of the manuscript should be submitted. Each article should be accompanied by a summary, not exceeding 100 words, outlining the principal conclusions and methods in the context of currently accepted views on the subject. All material – including quotations and notes – must be double-spaced with generous margins. Use of dot-matrix printers is discouraged. Notes should be numbered consecutively and placed at the end of the text. Spelling should be consistent throughout (e.g. Labour and Labor are both acceptable, but only one of these forms should be used in an article). Turns of phrase using masculine forms as universals are not acceptable.
