Pitch of Poetry Charles Bernstein

"Pitch of Poetry is wide-ranging, protean, exhilarating. Refreshingly polemical and polemically refreshing. As someone who has read Bernstein since his very first books, I am impressed most by his ability to retread his thinking and discover new angles to old routes. This is criticism that makes up its own rules and then doesn't follow those either."

—Pierre Joris, author of Barzakb: Poems 2000–2012

Network Aesthetics Patrick Jagoda

"Network Aesthetics will transform the study of digital networks both for new media scholars and for film and literature scholars. Jagoda's monograph is a fully fleshed out, closely argued, and richly detailed account of an emergent network aesthetics that informs both analog and digital forms such as the novel, the television serial, the networked game, and the augmented reality game. A remarkable book: lyrical, deeply ethical, and inspiring."—Lisa Nakamura, University of Michigan

Juvenescence A Cultural History of Our Age Robert Pogue Harrison

"Juvenescence is somehow both digressive and closely reasoned. . . . It's odd and brilliant—clearly the product of thought given time to ripen."—Inside Higher Ed

Critical Lives from Reaktion

Ernest Hemingway Verna Kale

Kale follows Hemingway around the world and through his many roles—as a young Red Cross volunteer in World War I, as an expatriate poet in 1920s Paris, as a career novelist navigating the burgeoning middlebrow fiction market, and as a seasoned but struggling writer still trying to draft his masterpiece. Concise but insightful, this book offers an acute portrait.

Antonin Artaud David A. Shafer

Poet, actor, playwright, surrealist, drug addict, asylum inmate—Antonin Artaud (1896–1949) is one of the twentieth century's most enigmatic personalities and idiosyncratic thinkers. Situating Artaud's contributions within the frenzy of his life and that of the twentieth century at large, this book is a compelling and fresh biography.

50 Drawings to Murder Magic

Antonin Artaud

Translated by Donald Nicholson-Smith
Edited with a Preface by Évelyne Grossman

50 Drawings to Murder Magic is rooted in the nine years Artaud spent in mental asylums, struggling with schizophrenia and the demonic, persecutory visions it unleashed. These pieces trace Artaud's struggle to escape a personal hell that extended far beyond the walls of asylums and the dark magicians he believed ran them.
