Modern Asian Studies

Editor

Joya Chatterji, University of Cambridge, UK

Book Review Editor

Norbert Peabody, University of Cambridge, UK

Modern Asian Studies promotes original, innovative and rigorous research on the history, sociology, economics and culture of modern Asia. Covering South Asia, South-East Asia, China, Japan and Korea, the journal is published in six parts each year. It welcomes articles which deploy inter-disciplinary and comparative research methods. Modern Asian Studies specialises in the publication of longer monographic essays based on path-breaking new research; it also carries substantial synoptic essays which illuminate the state of the broad field in fresh ways. It contains a book review section which offers detailed analysis of important new publications in the field.

NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society invites the submission of original scholarly articles on the anthropology, archaeology, architecture, art, history, languages, literatures, philosophies and religions of all parts of Asia. The Journal also welcomes proposals for special issues from guest editors which may, or may not, be based on conference proceedings. The Journal will also consider rigorously argued pieces of research of extended length. Authors are informed that the Journal is now published online through First View in advance of print publication.

Submissions

All editorial communications should be addressed to:

The Editorial Office
cdb@royalasiaticsociety.org, or
Royal Asiatic Society
14 Stephenson Way
London NW1 2HD
UK

Submissions should be made electronically, formatted in 'word.doc' form and accompanied by a 'pdf'. Delivery should be by email attachment to the editorial office at cdb@royalasiaticsociety.org. If non-Roman scripts or characters are used, these should be rendered in Unicode. We strongly discourage submission of articles formatted in 'TeX' or in hardcopy. Occasionally authors may wish to send CDs or USB-sticks to the editorial office by post. Postal correspondence should be addressed to:- The Editorial Office, Royal Asiatic Society, 14 Stephenson Way, London NW1 2HD.

Submission of an article, or other item, implies that it has not been published or accepted for publication elsewhere. Authors are responsible for obtaining written permission to publish, in both print and electronic media, material for which they do not own the copyright and for ensuring that appropriate acknowledgements are included in their draft text or typescript. Authors of material accepted for publication will be asked to assign their copyright to the Royal Asiatic Society.

Authors will receive electronic proofs directly from CUP but in cases where an author does not have online access the Journal's editorial office will dispatch hardcopy proofs. All corrections should be returned to the Journal's Editorial Office.

References and notes should be typed in the form of the following examples:
