WITNESS TO THE WORD

A Commentary on John 1
Karl Barth
Edited by Walther Furst
Translated by Geoffrey W. Bromiley

"Although Witness to the Word is a relatively early work, it offers an excellent introduction to some of Barth's lifelong theological convictions. . . .

TEXT AND INTERPRETATION

A.S. van der Woude,
General Editor

Practical and expository, this new series of paperback commentaries aims to provide the reader with clear and concise explanations of every book in the Bible. Each commentary begins with an introduction, which discusses the origin of the book of the Bible under consideration, as well as its author, composition and related matters.

FOOLISHNESS TO THE GREEKS

The Gospel and Western Culture
Leslie Newbigin

Unlike the many theological studies of the gospel and culture that look at Western culture from within, or studies of cross-cultural mission that emphasize mission from the First World to the Third World, this book treats the First World as mission field, offering a unique perspective on the relationship between the gospel and modern culture.

RESURRECTION AND MORAL ORDER

An Outline for an Evangelical Ethics
Oliver O'Donovan

"Resurrection and Moral Order in a wonderful way reclaims central Christian convictions for ethical reflection. . . . I know of no book that so helpfully draws on the classical Christian tradition to illumine our contemporary situation. At the very least, it is going to be a book that many will see as indispensable for the teaching of Christian ethics."

JAMES

The Man and His Message

James B. Adamson

This book thoroughly investigates the intriguing questions surrounding the Epistle and its author and offers some fresh solutions. Adamson concludes that this fiery epistle reveals a tremendous personality who still speaks to the whole church, and whose words, when heeded, will not only revolutionize its life and action, but also guarantee its far-reaching renewal. THE EVANGELICAL —ROMAN CATHOLIC DIALOGUE ON MISSION, 1977-1984

Edited by John R. W. Stott and Basil Meeking

Born out of a desire to find a common ground between Evangelicals and Roman Catholics in their endeavors to be more faithful in their obedience to the church's mission, The Evangelical — Roman Catholic Dialogue on Mission was a series of meetings held from 1977 to 1984. This book represents a faithful record of the ideas shared in the meetings and gives a substantial idea of how the dialogue developed.

CREATED IN GOD'S IMAGE Anthony A. Hoekema

"This investigation of anthropology employs rigorous biblical analysis of its topics: the imago Dei, human sin, common grace, human destiny. Along the way, it provides a compendium of information about contemporary and traditional disputes on the subject, viewed from within a classical Reformed perspective."

—Gabriel Fackre

DYNAMICS IN PASTORING

Jacob Firet

"A classic in the theology of pastoral ministry, this book vibrates with a theology of God's encounter with human persons through the mediation of the pastor as preacher, counselor, and agent of change. No seminary student should be without the opportunity to wrestle with the implications of this book in preparing for pastoral ministry."

NEW ORBIS BOOKS FOR BIBLICAL STUDY

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

Utopia or Program for Action?
by PINCHAS LAPIDE

To get as close as possible to its original meaning, Judaic scholar Pinchas Lapide investigates the Sermon on the Mount from the standpoint of Jesus' Jewishness and the fundamentally Hebraic quality of his ethical teachings. Recovering the perennial dynamism of the Beatitudes, the author provides surprising results for biblical studies, religious ethics studies, and Jewish-Christian relations. 160pp. $9.95 paper

A POOR MAN CALLED JESUS

Reflections on the Gospel of Mark
by JOSE CARDENAS PALLARES

Reinventing the Church

FAITH OF A PEOPLE The Life of a Basic Christian Community in El Salvador

by PABLO GALDÁMEZ

Foreword by Jon Sobrino

Written by a member priest, Faith of a People recounts the experiences of poor but faith-filled Christians—their crises and triumphs, hardships and rewards, their pain and joy—as they sought a new definition of church and society in their basic Christian community. Written for anyone interested in the inside story of the role of Christians in the ongoing Central American revolution.

"The people and church in El Salvador emerged from anonymity and uttered a mighty word for the whole world to hear." —JON SOBRINO
