for HISTORICAL STUDIES

“Risk and Fortune”

Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies

During the academic years 2016/17 and 2017/18, the Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies will focus on the topic of “Risk and Fortune.” Notions of risk have been important to human societies for centuries. Soothsaying, insurance, medical prognostication, financial investment, and gambling all contend with—or try to contain—possible losses. Conversely, good fortune has had its talismans and theorists throughout history. How have different cultures tried to tame chance, or comprehend its whims? To what degree have the practices of commerce relied upon, or alternatively reefed, risk? Do technological systems generate hazards they are not capable of controlling? This two-year seminar will bring together scholars working on risk and fortune in historical societies around the world in all time periods, on topics including (but not restricted to) economics, science, religion, industry, statistics, and agriculture.

The Center will offer a limited number of research fellowships for one or two semesters, running from September to January and from February to June. Early career scholars must have their doctoral degrees in hand at the time of the application. Fellows are expected to live in Princeton in order to take an active part in the intellectual interchange with other members of the Seminar. Funds are limited, and candidates are, therefore, strongly urged to apply to other grant-giving institutions as well as the Center if they wish to come for a full year.

To apply please link to: <http://jobs.princeton.edu>, requisition #1500396. The deadline for receipt of applications and letters of recommendation for fellowships for 2016/2017 is December 1, 2015. Please note that we will not accept faxed applications. Applicants must apply online and submit a CV, cover letter, research proposal, abstract of proposal, and contact information for three references. For further information about the Davis Center, please go to <http://www.princeton.edu/dav/>. Princeton University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.

Cambridge University Press to launch new book series on Afro-Latin American Studies

Cambridge University Press is delighted to announce a new book series, Afro-Latin America, to be edited by George Reid Andrews (University of Pittsburgh) and Alejandro de la Fuente (Harvard University). The series reflects the coming of age of the new, multi-disciplinary field of Afro-Latin American Studies, which centers on the histories, cultures, and experiences of people of African descent in Latin America, as well as the rise of a powerful transnational movement of activists, organizations, and institutions devoted to issues of racial equity and racial justice in Latin America.

The series aims to showcase scholarship produced by different disciplines, including history, political science, sociology, ethnomusicology, anthropology, religious studies, art, law, and cultural studies. It seeks to cover the full temporal span of the African Diaspora in Latin America, from the early colonial period to the present. We embrace a capacious definition of Afro-Latin America, to include not only countries or regions in Latin America (i.e. former colonies of Spain and Portugal) where people of African descent represent (either historically or today) a sizable portion of the population, but also areas where Africans and their descendants may have made an economic, cultural, or demographic impact despite limited numbers, particularly in regions where the indigenous population is numerically predominant. Our vision for the field includes Afro-Latinos, that is, people of African and Latin American descent who live in the United States and whose personal histories and experiences are shaped by different racial taxonomies, ideologies, and understandings of race. It also includes studies that seek to capture transnational movements of peoples, ideas, and cultural practices associated with Africans and their descendants in Latin America, and those that deal with Afro-indigenous relations and interactions.

The editors, George Reid Andrews (reid1@pitt.edu) and Alejandro de la Fuente (delafuente@fas.harvard.edu) welcome inquiries from prospective authors. Manuscript submissions should be sent to: Deborah Gershenowitz (dgershenowitz@cambridge.org), Senior Editor, U.S. and Latin American History, Cambridge University Press, 32 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10013.

Editorial policy

Journal of American Studies publishes works by scholars from all over the world on American literature, history, institutions, politics, economics, film, popular culture, geography and related subjects.

A 'Notes and Comments' section provides a forum for shorter pieces and responses from readers to points made in articles or reviews.

1. Submissions

Papers should be submitted via the following website <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jamstuds>. Authors who do not yet have an account on the online submission site will need to register before submitting a manuscript. If you are unsure about your login details or whether you have an account or not, please use the password help field on the login page. Do not create a new account if you are unsure.

If you experience any difficulties submitting your manuscript, please contact ScholarOne support at <http://mchelp.manuscriptcentral.com/gethelpnow/question.htm>

Any editorial correspondence should be addressed to Professor Celeste-Marie Bernie and Dr Bevan Sewell at jas@baas.ac.uk.

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, and has not been submitted for publication elsewhere. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of your paper.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

2. Manuscript preparation

Articles should not exceed 8,000 words.

Manuscripts should be submitted via the online submission system at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jamstuds>. Authors should remove their name from the manuscript and should ensure that their manuscript is fully anonymised.

File names should be of the type AMSauthor surname.doc or .rtf for ease of identification.

Diagrams, maps, and illustrations should be made into an eps file or a tif file and the file name should be AMSauthorsurname1.eps or .tif (where the number is the figure number).

Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.

3. Text preparation

Spelling and punctuation may conform either to British or American usage, providing it is consistent throughout. In either case quotation should follow the style of the original.

Use -ize (as in organize), connection, enquiry, judgement, focussed, role; elite, regime (without accents), but communiqué.

Quotations: Long quotations (i.e., of 50 words or more) will be set apart in smaller type, without quotation marks. They should also be indicated on the typescript. Shorter quotations will be set in the text, with double quotations within quotations, use single inside double.

Punctuation: All commas and periods ending quotations should appear inside the quotation marks; other punctuation goes outside unless it is actually part of the matter quoted.

Ellipsis within a sentence should be indicated by three ... spaced periods. Ellipsis at the end of a sentence should be indicated by three spaced periods following the sentence period, i.e. four periods in all.

Indentation: The first line of articles and of sections within articles and of reviews should not be indented. All other paragraphs begin with indentation.

Dates: 13 January 1976 (but 13 Jan. in footnotes); March 1978; 1920s; 1965–68; 1904–08 (except in headings: 1771–1773); seventeenth century; always abbreviate months in footnotes.

Figures: Spell one to ninety-nine in text, except e.g. 75 voted for, 39 against, and 15 abstained. Spell only one to nine in footnotes. 15 percent (but use % in footnotes).

Abbreviations: Mr., Dr., Jr., Sr. (as in Richard Henry Dana, Sr.); but USA, USSR, UN, NATO, ACLS, DAB, PMLA (without periods). Ibid., et al., etc., loc. cit. (Latin with periods).

Tables: Use space rather than vertical rules, unless the latter are absolutely essential sources and notes should appear immediately below each table.

Footnotes should be used sparingly; in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered consecutively.

Capitalization: southern, northern, southerner, northerner, governor, President of the United States, South, North, Midwest.

Citations should wherever possible be to authoritative editions rather than to paperback reprints of no textual authority.

Books should be cited complete with publisher's name:

Mark M. Smith, The Smell of Battle, the Taste of Siege: A Sensory History of the Civil War (New York: Oxford University Press, 2014), 52–87

Emily Rosenberg and Shannon Fitzpatrick, eds., Body and Nation: The Global Realm of U.S. Body Politics in the Twentieth Century (Durham, NC: Duke University Press, 2014)

John W. Blassingame, ed., The Frederick Douglass Papers: Series 1: Speeches, Debates and Interviews, 1864–80 Volume 4 (New Haven, CT: Yale University Press, 1991)

Caroline Levander, Where is American Literature? (Malden, MA: Wiley-Blackwell, 2013)

Subsequent citations should be indicated thus:

Immediately following: Ibid., 47.

Within the next ten footnotes: Levander, Where is American Fiction..., 271–78

Avoid op. cit.

Journals should be cited as follows:

Daniel Matlin, "Who Speaks for Harlem? Kenneth B. Clark, Albert Murray and the Controversies of Black Urban Life," Journal of American Studies Volume 46, No 4 (November 2012), 875–894

Avoid Roman numerals. Indicate volume numbers by italicising, thus: 64

Vol. No. Ch. Pt. all cap.

Abbreviations to be italic, e.g. Journal of American History hereafter abbreviated to JAH.

Weekly magazines

"Who controls the Democratic Party?" Time, 19 Sept. 1975, 19–24

Newspapers

Norman Mailer, "Reflections on James Baldwin's 'Apocalypse'", New York Times, 9 Oct. 1968, 23.

4. Proofs

Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

5. Offprints

Article authors will receive a PDF file of their work.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
