CYLINDER SEALS

A Documentary Essay on the Art and Religion of the Ancient Near East

By H. FRANKFORT, M.A., Ph.D.

Research Professor of Oriental Archaeology in the Oriental Institute, the University of Chicago

The Cylinder Seals of Mesopotamia constitute her most original contribution to art. They reflect, moreover, several aspects of her civilization of which detailed knowledge from other sources is scanty. The purpose of this book is to reduce the seals—over 10,000 in number—to a comprehensible order, and to determine what conclusions we are entitled to draw from the documentary evidence which they supply.

With 47 Plates and 116 Figures in the Text. £2 2s.

Prices are net.

The Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies.

50, BEDFORD SQUARE, LONDON, W.C. 1

President: DR. H. IDRIS BELL, F.B.A.

THE subjects to promote the study of which the Society was formed are the history, archæology and art of Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire in general down to about 700 A.D. In particular, so far as its resources permit, and so far as is possible without prejudice to the wider objects with which it is concerned, the Society endeavours to encourage the study of Britain under Roman occupation by devoting space in its Journal to articles on Romano-British history and archæology.

In connexion with the Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies the Society maintains a joint library of works on classical antiquity, and a collection of lantern-slides and photographs. Members are entitled to borrow books and slides, and these can be sent to them by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at 50 Bedford Square.

Afternoon meetings for the reading and discussion of papers are held usually at Burlington House, Piccadilly, W.1, and one evening meeting is arranged for the discussion of a subject useful to teachers of Roman history. Further, the autumn meeting is held out of London and is combined with a visit to a Romano-British site. Notices of all meetings are sent to members.

The Journal of Roman Studies, which is open to the contributions of both British and foreign scholars, is published by the Society in half-yearly parts, and is sent post free to all members.

The Annual Subscription for membership of the Society is one guinea. The composition fee for life membership is ten guineas for persons over fifty years of age, and fifteen guineas for others. Student Associates are admitted at the reduced subscription of 10s. 6d.

Persons desirous of joining the Society are asked to communicate with the Secretary at the Haverfield Library, Ashmolean Museum, Oxford.

The Classical Association.

The objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £3 15s.). Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association and, on a payment of 2/6, of The Year's Work in Classical Studies (both post free.) They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices, though the reduction cannot be guaranteed unless the subscription is paid before January 31st in each year. Greece and Rome may be obtained for an annual subscription of 7s. 6d.

Applications for membership should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer of the Association (Miss Gedge, Westfield College [University of London], Hampstead, N.W. 3). Inquiries should be addressed to either of the Hon. Secretaries of the Association (Miss N. C. Jolliffe, Girton College, Cambridge and Mr. J. J. R. Bridge, Mutcombe, Fairfield Park, Bath), or to the Hon. Secretary of any one of the Local Branches, viz., Aberystwyth, Bedford and Northampton, Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, East Anglia, Hull, Kent, Leeds, Leicester, Liverpool, London, Manchester, Northumberland and Durham, North Wales, Nottingham, Oxford, Reading, Sheffield, Southampton, South Western, Sussex, Swansea, Taunton and West Somerset.

The History of HERODOTUS

By J. E. POWELL

7s. 6d. net

(Cambridge Classical Studies)

This is the first book in English devoted to the problem of determining the years, the places and the order in which Herodotus wrote the various parts of his History. The changes of plan, deletions and revisions which this investigation brings to light are used to reconstruct the intellectual development of the first of all historians.

THE ALPHA CLASSICS

A New Series of Greek and Latin Texts

GENERAL EDITOR: R. C. CARRINGTON, M.A., D.Phil.

Headmaster of St. Olave's School

An attractive new series of texts carefully designed to meet modern ideas of classical teaching. The Introductions aim at being succinct, relevant, and suggestive, and have in view the needs of the teacher who wants an indication of the new light thrown on his subject but has little time for private research. In the Notes the main emphasis is laid on subject matter rather than on syntax and grammar. Each volume contains twelve plates finely printed on art paper. The needs of School Certificate candidates have been kept in mind throughout, and each volume has a full vocabulary. Details on application.

First volumes

CAESAR'S INVASIONS OF BRITAIN 2s.	HORACE: ODES, Book I 2s.
