Contents

	of Figures	page ix
List	of Contributors	xii
Ack	nowledgements	xvi
Frontispiece figure		XX
	Introduction: Hidden Legacies Cristina S. Martinez and Cynthia E. Roman	I
PAR	RT I SELF-PRESENTATION AND SELF-PROMOTION
Ι	Show-Offs: Women's Self-Portrait Prints c. 1700 Madeleine C. Viljoen	11
2	Maria Hadfield Cosway's 'Genius' for Print: A Didactic, Commercial, and Professional Path Paris A. Spies-Gans	25
3	Caroline Watson and the Theatre of Printmaking Heather McPherson	40
4	'Talent and Untiring Diligence': The Print Legacy of Angelika Kauffmann, Marie Ellenrieder, and Maria Katharina Prestel F. Carlo Schmid	56
PAR	RT II SPACES OF PRODUCTION
5	Living 'in the bosom of a numerous and worthy family': Women Printmakers Learning to Engrave in Late Eighteenth-Century London Hannah Lyons	75

viii Contents

6	Divine Secrets of a Printmaking Sisterhood: The Professional and Familial Networks of the Horthemels and Hémery Sisters Kelsey D. Martin	91
7	Yielding an Impression of Women Printmakers in Eighteenth-Century France Rena M. Hoisington	108
8	Laura Piranesi incise : A Woman Printmaker Following in Her Father's Footsteps Rita Bernini	123
9	Etchings by Ladies, 'Not Artists' Cynthia E. Roman	137
	T III COMPETING IN THE MARKET: ACUMEN IN BUSINESS D LAW
10	Mary Darly, Fun Merchant and Caricaturist Sheila O'Connell	155
H	A Changing Industry: Women Publishing and Selling Prints in London, 1740–1800 Amy Torbert	174
12	Jane Hogarth: A Printseller's Imprint on Copyright Law Cristina S. Martinez	189
13	Shells to Satire: The Career of Hannah Humphrey (1750–1818) Tim Clayton	207
14	Encouraging Rowlandson: The Women Who Mattered Nicholas JS Knowles	222
15	Female Printmakers and Printsellers in the Early American Republic: Eliza Cox Akin and Mary Graham Charles Allison M. Stagg	242
Inde	ex	254