Dancing Modernism/ Performing Politics

Mark Franko

A revisionary account of the evolution of "modern dance" in which Mark Franko calls for a historicization of aesthetics that considers the often-ignored political dimension of expressive action. Includes an appendix of articles of left-wing dance theory, which flourished during the 1930s.

Available May 1995

240 pages, illus., 33 b&w photos, paper $12.95 (also in cloth $29.95)

Choreographing History

Edited by Susan Leigh Foster

Historians of science, sexuality, the arts, and history itself focus on the body, merging the project of writing about the body with theoretical concerns in the writing of history.

Unnatural Acts: Theorizing the Performative

Available May 1995

272 pages, illus., paper $14.95 (also in cloth $29.95)

Rumba

Dance and Social Change in Contemporary Cuba

Yvonne Daniel

Using dance anthropology to illuminate the values and attitudes embodied in rumba, Yvonne Daniel explores the surprising relationship between dance and the profound, complex changes in contemporary Cuba. Once a lower-class recreational dance, rumba has become a symbol of egalitarian efforts in postrevolutionary Cuba.

Blacks in the Diaspora

Available June 1995

224 pages, illus.,
paper $12.95
(also in cloth $29.95)

The Congress on Research in Dance (CORD) is an interdisciplinary organization with an open, international membership. Its purposes are 1) to encourage research in all aspects of dance, including its related fields; 2) to foster the exchange of ideas, resources, and methodology through publications, international and regional conferences, and workshops; 3) to promote the accessibility of research materials.

CORD is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization. Copies of the CORD financial and operating report, filed with the State of New York, are available upon written request from the New York State Board of Social Welfare, Charities Registration Section, Office Tower, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12242 U.S.A.

Members of CORD have voting privileges, reduced rates at conferences, special discounts on publications, and receive two journals, two newsletters, and a membership directory each membership year, which extends from January 1 to December 31. Members whose dues are received in the CORD Office after March 15 will receive current publications unless no stock remains, in which case they will receive another recent issue. (Publication print-runs are based on current membership figures and include a limited number of over-runs projected to accommodate members who join after March 15.) To ensure receipt of publications, members are responsible for notifying the CORD Office of address changes in a timely manner.

Membership Fees (membership fees are given below in US dollars, and must be paid in US funds in the form of a check drawn on a US bank, international money order, or international postal money order):
