INSTITUTE OF POPULAR MUSIC in association with the DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATION STUDIES

Applications are invited for a new MA degree course:
Cultural Research and Analysis: Media, City, Nation

This programme is one year long, running full-time from October 1996. The degree aims to introduce students to current work in the area of research on popular cultural institutions, forms and behaviours. Within this context the degree will focus upon some key topics: core courses look at the mass media and culture; at culture and national identity; at city culture and urban life; and at ethnographic methods in cultural research. A range of optional modules are also offered, including Fans and Audiences, Music Semiotics, British Cinema; Topics in Popular Music History.

INSTITUTE OF POPULAR MUSIC

Also, available is an MA degree course in Popular Music Studies that has been running with great success since 1990 on a full-time and part-time basis. The course includes units on Textual Analysis, Topics in History, Ethnography, and Music Policy.

Further details and application forms on both courses are available from:

Notes for contributors

The top copy of the typescript should be submitted. This must be double spaced with margins of at least 1". Notes, bibliographies, appendixes and displayed quotations must also be double spaced. Contributors should write in English, or be willing to have their articles translated. A cover page should be submitted with the article, containing the author's name and postal address, telephone number, and where possible, fax number and electronic mail address. When an article has been accepted for publication, the author may send a copy on computer diskette, together with details of the format and wordprocessor used. However, the publisher reserves the right to typeset any article by conventional means if the author's disk proves unusable.

Tables, graphs, diagrams and music examples must be supplied on separate sheets. Table headings should be typed above the table in the form 'Table 1. The musical categories'. Other captions should be typed double spaced in the same style on separate sheets. Tables, Figures (which include photographs) and music examples should each be consecutively numbered through the article and their approximate positions in the text noted in the margin of the typescript. Figures and music examples should, if possible, be supplied in a form suitable for direct reproduction. Photographs must be well contrasted black and white glossy prints, ideally measuring 8" x 6". Cross-references in the text to figures, etc. should be in the form '(see Example 1)', etc.

Permissions. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright (a form letter is available for this purpose) and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their typescript.

Headings. The article title and subheadings should be typed using initial capitals only for the first word and any proper names.

Notes should be kept to a minimum and numbered consecutively through the text with raised numbers outside punctuation. Type the notes on separate sheets at the end of the article.

Bibliographical references should be incorporated in the text using the author-date system: 'as shown by Simon Frith (1981, p. 176)'; '(Frith 1981, p. 176)'; '(Smith and Jones 1978; Frith 1981)'. A complete Bibliography should be typed, double spaced, at the end of the article, following any Notes. Use the following style:

- Hebdige, D. 1982. 'Towards a cartography of taste 1935-1962', in Popular Culture: Past and Present, ed. B. Waites, T. Bennett and G. Martin (London), pp. 194-218
- Fairley, J. (ed.) 1977A. Chilean Song 1960-76 (Oxford)
- 1977B. 'La nueva canción chilena 1966-76', M.Phil. thesis, University of Oxford
- Green A. 1965. 'Hillbilly music: source and symbol'. Journal of American Folklore, 78, pp. 204-28

Discography. Contributors are encouraged to provide a Discography when appropriate. Use the style: Joan Baez, 'Song title', Recently. Gold Castle Records. 171 004-1. 1987

Quotations. Use single quotation marks except for quotations within quotations which should have double. Quotations of more than c. forty words should be indented and typed double spaced without quotation marks. Type the source on the last line at the right-hand margin.

Proof correction. Contributors receive proofs for correction (together with their original manuscript) on the understanding that they can provide a suitable mailing address and undertake to return the proofs plus manuscript within three days of receipt. Corrections should be restricted to printer's errors, and any other amendments marked will be made at the discretion of the editors and publishers.

Blues Fell this Morning

Meaning in the Blues

Second Edition

Paul Oliver

Foreword by Richard Wright

This book has become the classic account of the blues, one of the most evocative strands of American popular culture. Here, as never before, material from recordings and recollections of singers, going back to the 1920s, are woven into an interpretative account which now speaks to a new generation of readers about this unique cultural tradition.
