When 'feeling in the dumps', depressed, discouraged, melancholy, and generally at odds with the world about you, pick up this book and dip into it entirely at random, making no mental selection of any kind, but being absolutely indifferent to which little medicinal dose you are going to administer to your passé soul.

THE WORD PRESS

ST RICHARD'S COLLEGE, HADZOR, DROITWICH, WORCS.

Two Books by Gerald Vann, O.P.

THE PAIN OF CHRIST A course of Lenten sermons preached in Westminster Cathedral, together with a paper entitled 'The Sorrow of God'. These addresses have proved themselves to have a value all the year round and are very relevant to our modern crises and uncertainties. In a world which has known, and is knowing, so much pain and sorrow, Father Vann's words have an instantaneous appeal. 2nd revised edition. CROWN 8vo. 80pp. CLOTH 5s.0d.

EVE AND THE GRYPHON Father Vann here applies himself to the position of the Christian woman and how she is to live in the world to-day. He describes four ideals of womanhood—our Lady, St Catherine of Siena, St Monica, and Dante's Beatrice—four lovely surveys of woman's duty and providential influence on those who as children, husbands, friends and admirers look up to mother, wife, refined and saintly woman as guide'. CROWN 8vo. 60pp. CLOTH. 6s.0d.
