

NEW FROM CAMBRIDGE

Big Business and the Wealth of Nations

Alfred D. Chandler, Jr., Franco Amatori, and Takashi Hikino, Editors

This book explains how the dynamics of big business have influenced national and international economies from the late nineteenth century to the present.

Contributors: Alfred D. Chandler, Jr., Franco Amatori, Takashi Hikino, Geoffrey Jones, Ulrich Wengenroth, Harm G. Schröter, Patrick Fridenson, Albert Carreras, Xavier Tafunell, Hidemasa Morikawa, Alice H. Amsden, Maria Inés Barbero, Andrei Yu Yudanov, Alice Teichova, Giovanni Dosi, William Lazonick, Mary O'Sullivan, Thomas K. McCraw, Jeffrey R. Fear

48123-6 Hardback $69.95

Technology, Globalisation and Economic Performance

Daniele Archibugi and Jonathan Michie, Editors

This book describes and analyzes current processes of technological globalization, the behavior of transnational corporations, and what governments can do to enhance their economy's innovative performance and competitive advantage.

Contributors: Martin Bell, John Cantwell, Martin Fransman, Christopher Freeman, Franco Malerba, Stan Metcalfe, David Mowery, Richard Nelson, Luigi Orsenigo, Joanne Oxley, Pari Patel, Keith Pavitt

55392-X Hardback $59.95

55642-2 Paperback $19.95

Small Firms in the Japanese Economy

D. H. Whittaker

This book looks at small firms in Japan's leading machine industries, their relations with each other as well as with large firms, and their internal management, employment and technology dynamics.

58152-4 Hardback $49.95

Forcing the Factory of the Future

Cybernation and Societal Institutions
Bryn Jones

This study unveils a recurring historical conflict between two logics of factory management and organization: workshop principles and principles of a standardized factory.

57206-1 Hardback $59.95

A History of Corporate Finance

Jonathan Baskin and Paul J. Miranti

"A History of Corporate Finance by Baskin and Miranti provides a panoramic account of the evolution of financial organizations and practices from ancient time through the present."

— Harry Markowitz, 1990 Winner of the Nobel Prize in Economics

55514-0 Hardback $29.95

Corporate Collapse

Regulatory, Accounting and Ethical Failure

F. L. Clarke, G. W. Dean, and K. G. Oliver

This lively and readable book investigates the role of accounting in the sudden collapse of companies that were apparently reaping healthy profits.

58520-1 Hardback $69.95

Now in paperback...

The Economics of the Business Firm

Seven Critical Commentaries

Harold Demsetz

58865-0 Paperback $14.95

Acquiring Skills

Market Failures, their Symptoms and Policy Responses

Alison L. Booth and Dennis J. Snower, Editors

47957-6 Paperback $22.95

Available in bookstores or from

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

40 West 20th Street, N.Y., NY 10011-4211

Call toll-free 800-872-7423

Web site: <http://www.cup.org>

MasterCard/VISA accepted. Prices subject to change.

*New and forthcoming:Historical Perspectives on Business Enterprise Series

MANSEL G. BLACKFORD AND K. AUSTIN KERR, SERIES EDITORS

Capitalism, Politics, and Railroads in Prussia, 1830–1870

JAMES M. BROPHY

Centering on the relationship of railroad entrepreneurs with the Prussian state during the industry's critical phase of growth and consolidation, Brophy describes how a capitalist economy was established within a political system stamped by Prussian conservatism. January / 272 pp. / Cloth $50.00

Courts and Commerce:
Gender, Debt Law, and the Market Economy in Colonial
New York

DEBORAH A. ROSEN

Rosen describes the expansion of the market economy in colonial New York and the way the law gave opportunities for eighteenth-century men to expand their economic networks while simultaneously constraining women's opportunities to engage in market relationships. October / 312 pp. / Cloth $45.00 / Paper $17.95

Oil Baron of the Southwest: Edward L. Doheny and the Development of the Petroleum Industry in California and Mexico

MARTIN R. ANSELL

This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of the business career of one of the most successful and colorful entrepreneurs of the early twentieth century, the oilman Edward Laurence Doheny. January / 432 pp. / illus. / Cloth $60.00

New in Paperback
American Public Finance and Financial Services, 1700–1815

EDWIN J. PERKINS

"A thorough and well-researched financial history of the early years of this country and their effect on the future development of the American economic system." — Library Journal
448 pp. / Cloth $55.00 / Paper $18.95

BFGoodrich: Tradition and Transformation, 1870–1995

MANSEL G. BLACKFORD

AND K. AUSTIN KERR

"[The authors] document BFGoodrich's entrepreneurial origins and analyze the impact of labor demands, antitrust regulation, and foreign competition on forcing the company's transformation. [A] readable, instructive study." — Booklist
506 pp. / illus. / Cloth $30.00

A History of Accountancy in the United States of America:
The Cultural Significance of Accounting

GARY JOHN PREVITS

AND BARBARA DUBIS MERINO

The only comprehensive chronicle of American accountancy from the colonial period to the present.

December / 576 pp. / illus.Cloth $55.00 / Paper $24.95

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY PRESS

180 Pressey Hall • 1070 Carmack Road • Columbus, OH 43210
Call (800) 437-4439 • Fax (614) 292-2065

New from Princeton

Endless Novelty

Specialty Production and American Industrialization,
1865-1925

Philip Scranton

The United States emerged as a leading global manufacturer in the decades that followed the end of the Civil War. Traditional historical accounts credit America's huge mass-production businesses—including steel, oil, and automobiles—for this ascendancy. Here Philip Scranton boldly recasts the history of this vital episode in the development of American business, providing a highly detailed account of the crucial role played by specialty firms in bolstering U.S. economic fortunes.

"A tremendously important book. . . . Endless Novelty provides historians with a new model for understanding the nature of industrialization in America."

—John N. Ingham

Cloth $39.50 ISBN 0-691-02973-3

Modern Manors

Welfare Capitalism since the New Deal

Sanford M. Jacoby

Sanford Jacoby offers a timely, comprehensive history of twentieth-century "welfare capitalism"—a history of nonunion corporations that looked after the economic security of their employees. Building on three fascinating case studies of "modern manors" (Eastman Kodak, Sears, and TRW), Jacoby argues that welfare capitalism did not expire during the Depression. Rather it adapted to the challenges of the 1930s and became a powerful factor in the history of the welfare state, the labor movement, and the corporation.

"Sanford Jacoby is probably the leading American practitioner on the interface joining labor history, business history, and economic history. In Modern Manors, Jacoby again breaks new ground. . . . The book is a work of history that speaks to pressing issues of our times."

—Gavin Wright

Cloth $35.00 ISBN 0-691-01570-8

Princeton University Press

AT FINE BOOKSTORES OR CALL 800-777-4726 • HTTP://PUP.PRINCETON.EDU

Harvard Business School Press

THE POWER OF IDEAS AT WORK

From Promise to Performance

A Journey of Transformation at SmithKline Beecham

Robert P. Bauman, British Aerospace,
Peter Jackson, PJ Corporate Consultants Ltd., and Joanne T. Lawrence, JT Lawrence & Company Ltd.

A compelling, first-hand account of the most successful transnational merger of all time.

“A truly unique effort that weaves an intriguing, even spellbinding story.”

—JON KATZENBACH, Co-author of Wisdom of Teams and Director, McKinsey & Co.

320 pages • $27.50 • #634-3

Mastering the Dynamics of Innovation

James M. Utterback,
Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Mastering the Dynamics of Innovation offers a pioneering model for how innovation unsettles industries and firms, and features fascinating histories of new product developments and strategies for nurturing innovation.

“The most valuable book I’ve read in years....
The analysis is brilliant.”

—TOM PETERS

288 pages • $15.95 paperback • #740-4

New and Improved

The Story of Mass Marketing In America

Richard S. Tedlow, Harvard Business School

New and Improved is the most comprehensive and influential history of mass marketing ever written, and is punctuated throughout with dramatic tales of marketing rivalries. Featuring a new introduction by the author.

“A facinating history.”

—THE BOSTON GLOBE

528 pages • $17.95 • paperback • #672-6

To order call 1.800.988-0886/617.496.1449 ■ Mention priority code 2203.

Harvard Business School Press ■ Boston, MA ■ 02163 <http://www.hbsp.harvard.edu>

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Manuscripts are considered for publication on the understanding that they are not concurrently under consideration elsewhere and that the material—in substance as well as form—has not been previously published.

Three copies of the manuscript should be submitted.

Authors should identify themselves only on a separate title page that provides name, mailing address, and telephone number. Authors must also remember not to identify themselves in the body of the manuscript; specifically, references to their own work in the text should be in the third person, and citations should be written without possessive pronouns—not “See my ....”

Potential contributors should initially submit hard copy, not diskettes, but it will save considerable work for all parties in the event of acceptance if authors follow a few rules from the beginning:

- In general, use as few formatting commands as possible.
- Left justify text.
- Do not hyphenate words at the end of lines.
- ALL material—including extracted quotations and notes—must be double spaced.
- Notes should be numbered consecutively and citations should be placed as footnotes or endnotes formatted as indicated by The Chicago Manual of Style (1993).
- Each table and figure must be accompanied by a complete source.

Each article should be accompanied by an abstract of 75–100 words outlining the main point(s) of the paper and placing the article in context. Subheads should be used to divide the manuscript into three or four sections (or more, depending on length). We do not have an upper or lower page limit, but articles usually run between 25 and 50 typescript pages, including notes and other material.

We are always eager to publish illustrations, but authors should not include originals of illustrative materials at the time of submission; photocopies of such material may be included. Authors are responsible for obtaining all illustrative materials and permissions for reproduction, and for writing captions.

Authors of accepted manuscripts will receive two copies of the issue in which the article appears, and twenty-five free offprints.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

We use the 14th edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (1993) and spell and hyphenate words according to Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary.

The journal encourages authors to use gender-neutral prose in all cases where it is not anachronistic to do so; male nouns and pronouns should not be used to refer to people of both sexes. We use the day-month-year form for dates, as 11 February 1998. Double quotation marks should be used for journal titles and direct quotation; single quotation marks are used for quoted material inside quotations.

SAMPLE CITATION FORMS

Book: Alfred D. Chandler, Jr., The Visible Hand: The Managerial Revolution in American Business (Cambridge, Mass., 1977), 321-22.

Journal: Charles Cheape, “Not Politicians but Sound Businessmen: Norton Company and the Third Reich,” Business History Review 62 (Autumn 1988): 444-66.

Note that we do not include the publisher in book citations. We do not use loc. cit., op. cit., or idem., but ibid. (not italicized) may be used.

The Business History Group at Harvard, 1985

