The subscription rate is $6.00 a copy for Early China 1 and Early China 2. The rate is $7.00 a copy for both Early China 3 and Early China 4. Please add an additional $1.00 to the rates for overseas subscribers. Checks should be made payable to: The Society for the Study of Early China, c/o David N. Keightley, Department of History, Berkeley, CA 94720.

Early China is published annually by The Society for the Study of Early China (Chairperson: David N. Keightley, Secretary-Treasurer: Nancy Price). The Society and The Editors assume no responsibility for the views expressed by the authors in the Society's publications.

Manuscripts and other material intended for publication should be sent to David N. Keightley at the above address. They should be typed in duplicate, double-spaced on 8 1/2-by-11-inch white paper, the footnotes separated from the text. Characters should be written after the romanization, but should not be included unless necessary. In matters of style, authors are asked to follow A Manual of Style, 12th ed., rev. Chicago, University of Chicago Press, 1969, and, for Chinese and Japanese materials, the "Style Sheet for Publications of the East Asian Research Center, Harvard University" (available from the East Asian Research Center). To avoid editorial correspondence, contributors are urged to conform as closely as possible to the printed format of this issue of Early China.

The cover background is taken from the 1640 edition of the Shih-chi, chüan 6:30b. It includes Ssu-ma Ch'ien's observation that those who do not forget the past are the masters of the future.
