CAMBRIDGE LIBRARY COLLECTION

Books of enduring scholarly value

In the spirit of Cambridge University Press's continued commitment to innovation and enterprise, the Cambridge Library Collection will launch in July 2009, making an initial group of 475 out-of-print books available again. Another 1,000 will follow by the end of 2009 and 3,000 titles a year will be added as the program continues.

Drawing from the world-renowned collections in the Cambridge University Library, these books are carefully selected by experts in each subject area because of their scholarly importance or as landmarks in the history of their academic discipline.

Cambridge University Press is using state-of-the-art scanning machines to capture the contents of each book. The files are processed to give a consistently clear, crisp image, and the books finished to the high-quality standard for which the press is recognized around the world. The latest print-on-demand technology ensures that the books will remain available indefinitely.

The Cambridge Library Collection will revive books of enduring scholarly value across a wide range of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, science and technology.

Developing Interests

Organizational Change and the Politics of Advocacy

McGee Young

“An innovative and fascinating account of the struggles of interest groups to survive, ascend to dominance, shape politics, and influence lives. Young brings the story to life with clear writing, vibrant case studies, and a commanding knowledge of American political development, public policy, and practical politics.”—David B. Robertson, coauthor of The Development of American Public Policy

“This is that rare book that political scientists will still be talking about—and reading!—a decade from now.”—Steven Teles, author of The Rise of the Conservative Legal Movement

“An outstanding contribution to interest group studies.”
—Daniel J. Tichenor, author of Dividing Lines: The Politics of Immigration Control in America

Politics & Gender

Published for the Women and Politics Research Section of APSA

Editors:

Kathleen Dolan
University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, USA

Aili Mari Tripp
University of Wisconsin, Madison, USA

Politics & Gender is an agenda-setting journal that publishes the highest quality scholarship on gender and politics and on women and politics. It aims to represent the full range of questions, issues, and approaches on gender and women across the major subfields of political science, including comparative politics, international relations, political theory, and U.S. politics. The Editors welcome studies that address fundamental questions in politics and political science from the perspective of gender, as well as those that interrogate and challenge standard theoretical approaches, methodologies, and analytical categories.

International Theory

A Journal of International Politics, Law and Philosophy

journals.cambridge.org/int

Editors

Duncan Snidal, University of Chicago

Alexander Wendt, The Ohio State University

Launching in 2009, International Theory invites papers on theory of all varieties and from all disciplines, provided it addresses problems of politics, broadly defined and relates to the international.

International Theory welcomes scholarship that uses evidence from the real world to advance theoretical arguments. However, it is intended as a forum where scholars can develop theoretical arguments in depth without an expectation of extensive empirical analysis.

Full instructions for contributors can be found here: journals.cambridge.org/int/ifc

Manuscripts for consideration or any queries should be sent by email to the Editors at it.mershon@osu.edu

CALL FOR PAPERS
Politics and Religion

Published by Cambridge University Press on behalf of the Religion and Politics Section of the American Political Science Association

Editors
Ted G. Jelen, University of Nevada at Las Vegas, USA
Sabrina P. Ramet, Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway

Politics and Religion, published on behalf of the Religion and Politics Section of the American Political Science Association, is a new peer-reviewed journal providing original research into all aspects of the relationship between politics and religion around the world.

The impact of religion on political attitudes, decision-making, and public policy development is analyzed, with topics ranging from abortion laws, sex education in schools, and stem cell research to transnational terrorism, morality, social justice, and human rights.

The journal is multidisciplinary and international in scope, with contributions coming from all relevant areas, including political science, theology, law, philosophy, sociology, history, area studies, and economics. Studies of public religion, secular-religious conflicts, and political divisions within a religion – from within and outside the Judeo-Christian tradition, including works from Islamic, Hindu, Buddhist and scholars of Eastern traditions – are especially welcome. Book reviews are also part of the journal's coverage.

STUDIES IN AMERICAN POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT

INSTRUCTIONS TO CONTRIBUTORS

Submitted articles: Authors should upload their manuscripts (double spaced) to the SAPD online submissions system at <http://www.editorialmanager.com/SAPD>. Please note that SAPD will no longer accept manuscript submissions by regular mail. Editorial correspondence should be directed to sapd@ucla.edu or, by regular mail, to Studies in American Political Development, Department of Political Science, University of California, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1472.

Preparation of manuscript: A separate title page should be prepared including the full article title, short title for use as a running head, author's full name and affiliation, and complete contact information (including phone number and e-mail address).

Manuscripts should conform to Chicago style (see below for examples concerning preparation of reference and note material). The entire manuscript (including notes and references) should be typed double-spaced, with at least 1 inch wide margins for copyediting marks. The manuscript should be submitted with elements arranged in the following order: (1) title page, (2) article text, (3) endnotes, (4) bibliography (optional), (5) appendices/tables, and (6) figures, placement of tables or figures should be cited in the text. The publisher will be responsible for placing artwork, tables or figures, as well as converting endnotes to footnotes.

Figures: Appendices, tables, and figures should be numbered consecutively throughout the article and should be included on separate pages appearing after the reference section. Table and figure images should also be uploaded as separate files. Figures should be ready for photographic reproduction; they cannot be redrawn by the publisher. Charts, graphs, or other artwork should be professionally rendered, or computer generated.

References and notes: References and notes should conform to the examples given here. For other cases, please refer to The Chicago Manual of Style. Author's acknowledgments or other personal notes will appear as an unnumbered note at the foot of the title page. Notes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the essay, not at the foot of the page. Notes should be numbered consecutively throughout the article. Numbered notes should appear at the end of the sentence. If multiple texts are cited in a sentence they should appear as one consolidated note at the end of the sentence.

Examples of correct styling for references are as follows:

Books: John D. Hicks, The Populist Revolt: A History of the Farmers' Alliance and the People's Party (Minneapolis: University of Minnesota Press, 1931), 96–152.

Subsequent references: Hicks, Populist Revolt, 96–152.

Journal articles: Scott C. James, "Building a Democratic Majority: The Progressive Vote and the Federal Trade Commission," Studies in American Political Development 9 (1995): 331–85.

Subsequent references: James, "Building a Democratic Majority," 331–85.

Chapters in collections: Benjamin Ginsberg, "Money and Power: The New Political Economy of American Elections," in The Political Economy, ed. Thomas Ferguson and Joel Rogers (Armonk, NY: M.E. Sharpe, 1984), 163–79. Subsequent references: Ginsberg, "Money and Power," 163–79.

Court cases: United States v. Patterson, 55 F. 605 (1893).

Congressional Records: Congressional Record, 78th Congress, 1st Sess., 1943, 89, 3353.

State and party abbreviations: Sen. Ted Kennedy (D-MA); Rep. Charles Rangel (D-NY)

Copyediting and proofreading: The publisher reserves the right to copyedit and proofread all articles accepted for publication. The lead author will be asked to review the copyedited manuscript prior to typesetting. Page proofs of an article will be sent to the lead author for correction of typographical errors only; authors must notify the editorial office of any changes within 48 hours or approval will be assumed.

Originality and copyright: To be considered for publication in Studies in American Political Development, a manuscript cannot have been published previously, nor can it be under review for publication elsewhere. Papers with multiple authors are reviewed with the assumption that all authors concur with its submission. A Copyright Transfer Agreement, with certain specified rights reserved by the author, must be signed and returned to the Editor by senior authors of accepted manuscripts, prior to publication.
