FACULTY JURISDICTION OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

George Newsom, QC

"... this volume will surely become a standard textbook."

Church Times

"Required reading... a most successful attempt to make knowledge of the system and how it works."

The Archbishop of Canterbury in the Foreword

Members of the diocesan registries, advisory committees and Parish organisations will find this book an invaluable, practical guide in the conduct of their business. For everyone who has dealings with church property there is no more thorough coverage of the law and practice of faculty than this work.

Faculty Jurisdiction of the Church of England:

- ★ Deals authoritatively with the structure and working of the court
- ★ Discusses all the reported case law since 1950
- ★ Examines in detail the important changes introduced by the Faculty Jurisdiction (Amendment) Rules 1987
- ★ Sets out the rules in the appendices along with essential forms and precedents

LISTED BUILDINGS

The Law and Practice of Historic Buildings, Ancient Monuments and Conservation Areas

Second Edition

Roger W. Suddards

"Purchase a copy without hesitation."

Housing and Planning Review

Written by an expert in the field, Listed Buildings is a comprehensive guide to the law and practice on listed buildings, ancient monuments and conservation areas. A full analysis of the statutory framework is followed by a detailed explanation of how the machinery operates in practice.

Special features include:

- ★ Full consideration of Government circulars, Ministerial decisions and judicial decisions
- ★ Emphasis on practical problems such as replacement windows, cladding, rendering and cleaning and roof materials
- ★ Full analysis of problems and procedures when listed buildings fall into disrepair, or are threatened with demolition
- ★ Specialist treatment of financial aspects, in particular taxation and the availability of grants
- ★ The rights and interests of the public are fully considered
- ★ List of relevant authorities and interested bodies

Listed Buildings is an essential guide to all those involved, whether as owners, advisers, or interested parties, in the management and maintenance of our built heritage.
