An international refereed quarterly journal of systematic, historical and biblical theology edited and published in Scotland, Scottish Journal of Theology provides an ecumenical forum for debate and engages in extensive reviewing of theological and biblical literature. Since its first issue in 1948, Scottish Journal of Theology has become established as one of the world's leading theological journals, and encourages an increasing flow of constructive and critical work.

CONSTITUTION

Scottish Journal of Theology is owned by Scottish Journal of Theology Ltd which is an independent company, registered in Scotland and recognised as a Charity, under the control of its own Board of Directors.
