Membership and Subscription

The Society's Byelaws set out the membership requirements as follows:

1. Anyone wishing to become a Fellow must be nominated by a Fellow of the Society and a seconder, each acting on personal knowledge that the candidate is likely to be a suitable and useful Fellow. The nominating Fellow and the seconder shall address the Secretary in writing and give the candidate's name, status, occupation and address.
2. A candidate for Fellowship may, instead of being nominated by a Fellow of the Society, address an application in writing to the Secretary giving the required information above and supported by a letter of recommendation from his head of department or supervisor or other responsible person who need not be a Fellow of the Society.
3. It shall be within the power of the Council, on being satisfied as to the credentials of any particular candidate in exceptional circumstances, to dispense with these conditions.
4. The annual subscription is:

	£	p
Fellows residing in the British Isles	70.00
If paying by direct debit	60.00
Fellows residing abroad	45.00
If paying by direct debit	40.00
Fellows residing in South or Central Asia	32.00
If paying by direct debit	30.00
Student Fellows	25.00
If paying by direct debit	20.00
Affiliated Fellows residing at the same address, not receiving separate notices or the Journal	25.00
5. The first payment of subscription is due on election, but if a candidate is elected in November or December of any year, the first annual subscription shall cover the year beginning 1st January next after his election.
6. Annual subscriptions shall be due on the first day of January of each year.

A new book by

Professor Francis Robinson of Royal Holloway, University of London

and

Former President of the Royal Asiatic Society

Jamal Mian

The Life of Maulana Jamaluddin Abdul Wahab of Farangi Mahall, 1919–2012 by Francis Robinson.

This book relates the life of Jamal Mian Farangi Mahalli, a highly respected scion of Lucknow's scholarly culture and a major leader of the Pakistan Movement. Based on the archives left by Jamal Mian, it explores his life as a member of Farangi Mahall, South Asia's leading family of Islamic learning from Lucknow. The author covers the colourful life of a dynamic personality—from his education in the Dars-i Nizami and the spiritual traditions of his family to his rise to the Muslim League High Command, and his involvement in the campaign for Pakistan.

Francis Robinson is a British historian and Professor of the History of South Asia.

Ibn Khaldun
An Intellectual Biography

Robert Irwin

The definitive account of the life and thought of the medieval Arab genius who wrote the Muqaddima

“Using his virtually unrivaled knowledge of the Mamluk world, Robert Irwin puts Ibn Khaldun in his context as no one else has done. . . . This is the work of a scholar at the height of his powers.”

—Francis Robinson, author of The Mughal Emperors

“An exhilarating work of intellectual recovery.”

NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society invites the submission of original scholarly articles on the anthropology, archaeology, architecture, art, history, languages, literatures, philosophies and religions of all parts of Asia. The Journal also welcomes proposals for special issues from guest editors which may, or may not, be based on conference proceedings. The Journal will also consider rigorously argued pieces of research of extended length. Authors are informed that the Journal is now published online through First View in advance of print publication.

Submissions

All editorial communications should be addressed to:

The Editorial Office
cdb@royalasiaticsociety.org, or
Royal Asiatic Society
14 Stephenson Way
