

NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

All editorial communications should be addressed to the Secretary, Royal Asiatic Society, 56 Queen Anne Street, London W1M 9LA, in the first instance.

Contributions submitted for publication in the Society's Journal should be typed in double spacing on quarto paper, leaving a margin of at least 16 strokes at the left-hand side. Sheets should be numbered consecutively at the top right-hand corner. Notes, numbered consecutively through the article, should be typed on a separate sheet or sheets at the end and not at the foot of each sheet.

Authors are urged to study the conventions employed in recent issues of the Journal, particularly the style of citation of books and periodical articles, and the bibliographical information inserted at the head of reviews. Contributions should be submitted in a form ready for the printer; later corrections which would involve over-running can be accepted only at the Editor's discretion. Galleys will be sent to authors, but not page proofs.

Authors of articles will be supplied with 25 free copies of offprints. Additional copies can be obtained on request at moderate charges; authors are asked to notify the Editor of their requirements when returning proofs.

MEMBERSHIP AND SUBSCRIPTION

1. Any person desirous of becoming a Fellow must be nominated by one Fellow and seconded by another, of whom one must act on a personal knowledge that the candidate is likely to be a suitable and useful Fellow ; and the nominating Fellows shall address the Secretary in writing and give the candidate's name, address, and occupation, or status, and shall state to which class the candidate desires to be admitted. Provided always that for persons domiciled abroad it shall be within the power of the Council, on being satisfied as to the credentials of any particular candidate, to dispense with these conditions.

2. The annual subscription for each class of Fellow is :—

Fellows resident in the United Kingdom . . . . .	7.00
Fellows subscribing under covenant . . . . .	6.00
Fellows residing abroad . . . . .	6.00

3. Library Associates, elected for five years only . . . . . 1.50
Libraries . . . . . 10.00

4. The first payment of subscription is due on election, but if a candidate be elected in November or December of any year, the first annual subscription paid by him shall cover the year beginning on the 1st January next after his election.

5. Annual subscriptions shall be due on the first day of January of each year.

Note: Payments by Deed of Covenant can be made only by Fellows who pay United Kingdom Income Tax.

When a candidate is proposed for election, this form should be completed in block letters and sent to THE SECRETARY, ROYAL ASIATIC SOCIETY, 56 QUEEN ANNE STREET, LONDON W1M 9LA.

FROM BIBLE TO MISHNA THE CONTINUITY OF TRADITION J Weingreen A compendium of Jewish law, the Mishna has at its core the written law of the Old Testament, adapted and amplified over the centuries. Professor Weingreen shows us that this process was at work much earlier than supposed, and claiming that rabbinical modes of interpretation can be found in the Old Testament, provides a reappraisal of Deuteronomy as a proto-Mishna and a reassessment of the study of the Pentateuch. The book is intended for the student as well as the theologian and can be followed without knowledge of Hebrew. £7.50 net

Farid al-Din 'Attar THE ILAHI-NAMA Translated by J A Boyle Farid al-Din 'Attar was one of the greatest of the Persian Sufi poets who used the media of narrative poems to illustrate Sufi doctrines. Professor Boyle's fully annotated translation—the first into English—is a major contribution to our understanding of Persian literature. Spring, about £10.00

CATALOGUE OF ETHIOPIC MANUSCRIPTS IN THE JOHN RYLANDS UNIVERSITY LIBRARY OF MANCHESTER Stefan Strelcyn The collection of Ethiopic manuscripts in the John Rylands University Library is not extensive, but is interesting in being highly representative of Ethiopic literature. In describing these forty-two manuscripts, Stefan Strelcyn has rendered important service to both his immediate colleagues and to the whole of Ethiopic scholarship.—'this excellent catalogue . . .—The Society for Old Testament Study Book List—'displays impeccable scholarship and immense erudition'—British Book News £6.00 net

East Indian Fortunes

The British in Bengal in the Eighteenth Century

---

P. J. Marshall

---

The subject of this book is the pursuit of wealth by Englishmen in Bengal. It is both an investigation of the legends which have grown up about the eighteenth-century 'Nabobs', describing how fortunes were made, and an examination of the role of personal ambition in the process of British commercial and political expansion as a whole. £7.75

Travels in India

An Anthology

---

Edited by H. K. Kaul

---

This book contains extracts from the accounts of European travellers in India between the sixteenth and early twentieth centuries. It is arranged around a wide range of themes that touch on most important aspects of Indian life. Illustrated £4

Kurrachee

Past, Present and Future

---

Alexander F. Baillie

Originally published in 1890, this book is an account of the city and port of Karachi as seen some fifty years after the British occupation of Sind in 1839. This reprint contains the original maps and photographs. Illustrated £12.95

---

The Antiquities of Sind

---

Henry Cousens

As a comprehensive survey of Sind's antiquities this book, originally published in 1929 as part of the Archaeological Survey of India, remains unsurpassed, and, although our knowledge of Sind's archaeological treasures has been advanced in the meantime, it remains the foundation on which subsequent work has been based. Illustrated £12.75

Letters from India

Describing a Journey in the British Dominions of India, Tibet, Lahore, and Cashmere, During the Years 1828-31

---

Victor Jacquemont

---

With an introduction by John Rosselli

These letters were written during Victor Jacquemont's travels in India to collect, describe, and classify the flora. A noble by birth and a scholar by training, Jacquemont was convinced that Europe had everything to teach the world and India had very little, a conviction which his stay in India merely deepened. Two volumes £9

---

A Journal to the Source of the River Oxus

---

John Wood

---

With an introduction by Geoffrey E. Wheeler

---

This is a colourful description of travel in the wild and lawless territory beyond the East India Company's jurisdiction, and provides one of the few accurate assessments of the political and military possibilities in the struggle between Britain and Russia for supremacy in Central Asia. £4.25

---

Caravan Journeys and Wanderings in Persia, Afghanistan, Turkistan, and Beloochistan

---

J. P. Ferrier

---

Edited by Gavin Hambly

Joseph Pierre Ferrier was a Frenchman whose extraordinary adventures were the outcome of his desire to travel overland from Baghdad to Lahore. The goal proved unattainable, but the account of his exploits made a most significant contribution to the nineteenth century's slender store of knowledge of the geography and history of Afghanistan. £4.75
