Managing Institutional Complexity

Regime Interplay and Global Environmental Change

edited by Sebastian Oberthür and Olav Schram Stokke

Experts investigate how states and other actors can improve inter-institutional synergy and examine the complexity of overlapping environmental governance structures.

376 pp., 5 illus., $27 paper

Governing the Air

The Dynamics of Science, Policy, and Citizen Interaction

edited by Rolf Lidskog and Göran Sundqvist

"This is a book about air quality, but also the ways in which environmental governance necessitates the negotiation and framing of social, scientific, and natural boundaries. The authors provide a compelling blend of empirical insight and theoretical sophistication—spiced throughout with innovative reflections on practice."

— Alan Irwin, Copenhagen Business School

Politics, Science, and the Environment series • 392 pp., 3 illus., $27 paper

Carbon Coalitions

Business, Climate Politics, and the Rise of Emissions Trading edited by Jonas Meckling

"Carefully researched, wide-ranging, and accessibly written, Carbon Coalitions makes an important contribution to a rapidly growing literature both on business and global environmental governance, and on climate governance in particular."

— Peter Newell, University of Sussex

International Journal of Asian Studies

Editor:

Takeshi Hamashita
Ryukoku University, Kyoto, Japan

Published in association with the Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia, University of Tokyo International Journal of Asian Studies (IJAS) is an interdisciplinary, English-language forum for research in the social sciences and humanities. IJAS examines Asia on a regional basis, emphasising patterns and tendencies that go beyond the borders of individual countries. It is particularly interested in locating contemporary changes within a historical framework, especially using interdisciplinary approaches, and so promotes comparative studies involving the various regions of Asia. As well as encouraging contributions from western scholars, IJAS focuses attention on the work of Asian scholars, in order to encourage multi-directional communication across the international Asian studies community. It includes both themed and general issues.

The China Quarterly

Editor:

Julia Strauss

School of Oriental and African Studies, UK

The China Quarterly is the leading scholarly journal in its field, covering all aspects of contemporary China including Taiwan. Its interdisciplinary approach covers a range of subjects including anthropology/sociology, literature and the arts, business/economics, geography, history, international affairs, law, and politics. Edited to rigorous standards by scholars of the highest repute, the journal publishes high-quality, authoritative research, keeping readers up to date with events in China. International in scholarship, The China Quarterly provides readers with historical perspectives, in-depth analyses, and a deeper understanding of China and Chinese culture. In addition to major articles, each issue contains a comprehensive Book Review section, and also a Quarterly Chronicle, which keeps readers informed of events in and affecting China.
