International Law Reports

The Authoritative Position in International Law

The International Law Reports is an essential holding for every library offering access to the whole range of international case law in one publication, in a manner which is both efficient and economical.

Prepared at the famous Lauterpacht Research Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge, the International Law Reports is the only publication in the world wholly devoted to the regular and systematic reporting in English of decisions of international courts and arbitrators as well as judgments of national courts.

Available individually or as a complete set (144 hardback volumes).

Why stock the International Law Reports in your library?

- ▶ First published in 1929 and featuring cases from 1919, no other publication enjoys such an authoritative position in international law
- ▶ It is the only publication to provide comparable coverage of case law in this field
- ▶ Cases are drawn from every relevant jurisdiction – international and national
- ▶ Up to 6 volumes published per year
- ▶ It's flexible – buy as a complete set or add to your existing collection with individual volumes
