

ECCLESIASTICAL LAW SOCIETY

LONDON LECTURES 2003

Each year the Ecclesiastical Law Society holds a series of lectures in Lincoln's Inn. The lectures are open both to members of the Society and to others, and are free of charge. You are invited to attend any or all of the lectures to be held in the year 2003.

The four lectures are as follows:

Date and time Wednesday 26 March, 5.30 — 6.30 p.m.
 Speaker The Ven. Bob Metcalf, Archdeacon of Liverpool, 1994-2002
 Subject Child protection in the Anglican Communion

Date and time Wednesday 18 June, 5.30—6.30 p.m.
 Speaker Jonathan Goodchild
 Subject The Council for the Care of Churches: care or conflict?

Date and time Wednesday 17 September, 5.30 — 6.30 p.m.
 Speaker Dr James Behrens, Chancellor of Leicester
 Subject Church dispute mediation

Date and time Wednesday 12 November, 5.30 —6.30 p.m.
 Speaker The Ven. Lyle Dennen, Archdeacon of Hackney
 Subject The law and practice of church planting

All the lectures will be held at

Serle Court, 6 New Square, Lincoln's Inn, London WC2A 3QS

The Ecclesiastical Law Society is grateful to Serle Court for providing its seminar room for these lectures.