F. Peemans et P. Lefèvre, Les sociétés coloniales. Archives et données bibliographiques, 1885-1960, Les Cahiers du CEDAF, 4-5/1980, 95 p., BF 500.

Archives and bibliographical data gathered in this monography constitute a highly valuable tool for further research on economic and financial aspects of the Belgian colonization. First-hand State, companies and private archives are listed and identified. The study also contains a brief typology of references as well as a short comment on the content of books and articles dealing with colonial companies.

Jean-Claude Willame, Le secteur multinational au Zaïre, Les Cahiers du CEDAF, 1/1980, 66 p., BF 250.

After having put the multinational phenomenon in the perspective of Zaïre's recent economic history, the author presents in this study some basic information on the big multinational firms which operate in Zaïre as well as on several transnational projects which have developed in that country since the early '70's. This information has been established on the basis of existing documentation kept at CEDAF as well as on first-hand original materials.
