THE NOBILITY OF POLAND

By Xavier Jon Puslowski

AVAILABLE AT:
amazon.com

Action-filled as any thriller, this historic panorama brings to life a little known and long defunct society: the Polish nobility, from their origins to their political demise during World War II.

Beginning with a mysterious murder, still unsolved, whose aftereffects shook Polish society to its core, the narrative unfolds until it reaches the 1940s. Chapters range from the nobility's day-to-day lives to such striking landmarks as the seventeenth century wars with the Ottoman Empire, the saga of Europe under the Napoleonic tricolor, and the centrality of Poland to the Eastern Front throughout the course of World War I.
