

Phyllis Fisher Neulist (Northwestern): Culture patterns among the Wagenia peoples (Belgium and Belgian Congo).

John E. Peterson (Northwestern): Historical study of a nineteenth-century urban community in Sierra Leone (England and Sierra Leone).

Grace Ramke (McNeese State College): Study of African art (Northwestern and Europe).

Aristide R. Zolberg (Chicago): Governmental institutions in the Ivory Coast (England, France, French West Africa).

Extensions of their present fellowships have been granted to:

Elliot J. Berg (Harvard): Completion of doctoral dissertation on labor allocation in Ghana and the Belgian Congo.

Alphonso A. Castagno (Columbia): Completion of research on political developments in the Somalilands.

Francis P. Conant (Columbia): Completion of doctoral dissertation on the dynamics of Islamization in Nigeria.

Harold C. Fleming (Yale): Completion of doctoral dissertation on the East Africa age-grading systems in Ethiopia.

James L. Gibbs, Jr. (Harvard): Research in Liberia on native law of the Kpelle tribe.

Alan H. Jacobs (Chicago): Research in East Africa on the age-class system among the Masai and completion of doctoral dissertation in England.

Richard L. Sklar (Princeton): Research in Nigeria on the political party system in the Federation of Nigeria, and completion of doctoral dissertation at Princeton University.

The following have been awarded fellowships for studies at American universities:

Frank J. Alberti, Jr. (Berkeley, California): Political science and African studies.

Willard R. Johnson: African studies with emphasis on political science, at Johns Hopkins University.

Sayre P. Schatz (Hofstra College): African area studies.

Douglas M. Young (Newfoundland): African area studies with emphasis on French West Africa and Nigeria.

Cours International d'Eté de Toumliline, Azrou, Maroc

QUATRE sessions de recherche et d'étude ont été organisées sous le patronage de l'Université marocaine :

1. Session de recherche : La commune (environ du 21 au 31 juillet).

2. Session d'étude : La communauté de base (du 4 au 9 août).

3. Session d'étude : L'enseignement au Maroc (du 11 au 15 août).

4. Session d'étude : Les problèmes de contact (du 18 au 24 août).

Les étudiants désireux de participer à l'une ou l'autre des trois sessions d'étude devront poser leur candidature en fournissant un curriculum vitae et des références qui serviront à la sélection des candidats. Les frais d'inscription sont fixés à 1000 frs. par session, et les frais de séjour à 1000 frs. par jour. Les candidats acceptés recevront en temps utile tous les détails sur le programme et sur les moyens d'accès à Toumliline.

Field Researches among the Hill Nuba

THE first of a series of expeditions planned to study the culture of the Hill Nuba was undertaken by Dr. Andreas Kronenberg from July to December 1957, under the auspices of the Austrian Ministry of Education, the Museum für Völkerkunde of Vienna, the Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research of New York, and other academic bodies. The aim of the expedition was to study the Nyimang, a tribe numbering about 37,000, particular attention being paid to their religious beliefs, fertility and rain-making cults. During a journey undertaken to study their stone monuments Dr. Kronenberg came into contact