CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions are invited from all over the world, and especially from scholars working in African universities. Articles written in languages other than English will be considered on their merits, and where necessary translation will be arranged. The average length suggested is 3,000 to 6,000 words, with occasional exceptions of up to 10,000 words. Notes on centres of African studies, research projects, and reports of recent conferences are also welcome.

All correspondence and contributions should be addressed to
THE EDITORS, THE JOURNAL OF MODERN AFRICAN STUDIES, at either UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, DAR ES SALAAM, TANZANIA or UNIVERSITY PRESS, CAMBRIDGE, ENGLAND.

Each contributor will receive a copy of the number and 25 offprints of his article free of charge.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Subscriptions (40s. net per annual volume of four parts, post free) are payable in advance, and may be sent to any bookseller, or to Cambridge University Press, Bentley House, 200 Euston Road, London, N.W.1. Subscribers in the U.S.A. should send their subscriptions ($7.50 per volume) to Cambridge University Press, American Branch, 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022.

MANPOWER STRATEGY FOR DEVELOPING COUNTRIES: Lessons
From Ethiopia

Eli Ginzberg and Herbert A. Smith

The authors, drawing on their field investigations in Ethiopia in 1966 and on earlier studies in Asia and Latin America, provide a new analytic model for the role of manpower in economic development. They delineate and assess the relations between manpower and the key sectors: agriculture, industry, education, government in terms of the development of manpower supply, demand, and utilization. $6.75

THE GEOGRAPHY OF MODERN AFRICA

William A. Hance

"The continent of Africa has undergone such vast political and economic changes in recent years that a new and up-to-date geography taking account of those changes has become overdue. . . . Professor Hance (of Columbia University), who knows Africa at first hand, subjects the entire continent to expert scrutiny. . . . The book is notable for its up-to-date maps, diagrams and statistics, making it easily the most valuable economic geography of the African continent currently available."—Saturday Review $13.50

Journal of Administration Overseas

An authoritative quarterly which discusses various aspects of administration overseas and particularly in developing countries. It is a continuous record of the problems which confront the practical administrator, and their solution, and it provides a compact medium for the exchange of ideas and knowledge. Treatment is given in particular to the local administration problems which face administrative personnel; the development of local government institutions; staff training; electoral machinery, local courts; land administration generally; and the difficult situations which are created through urban development and other social changes.
