International Journal of Law in Context

A global forum for interdisciplinary legal studies

The International Journal of Law in Context now features an exciting new section entitled 'Law in other contexts'. This section is dedicated to making available specially commissioned reports of socio-legal research in places where English is not the first language. In this way the journal hopes to bring attention to work which may not be easily accessible to those without knowledge of the relevant language (and culture).

International Theory

A journal of international politics, law and philosophy

International Theory promotes theoretical scholarship about the positive, legal, and normative aspects of world politics respectively. The journal is open to theory of absolutely all varieties and from all disciplines, provided it addresses problems of politics and pertains to the international.

The selection of papers below showcases some of the best articles on international law from the first six volumes of the journal.

- Interactional international law: an introduction
– Jutta Brunnée and Stephen J. Toope
- Categorical obligation in international law
– Harry Gould
- Ethics and international law: integrating the global justice project(s)
– Steven Ratner

Journal of African Law

Published for SOAS, University of London

The Journal of African Law has been in existence for over 55 years and in that time has followed changing trends in law and legal reform. The earlier focus on legal pluralism and customary law has evolved to include to a focus on issues of international law, post conflict resolution, constitutionalism and commercial law.

In recent years the journal has published articles on the Sharia debate in Nigeria, the new constitutional dispensation in Southern Sudan and case notes including on the rights of indigenous peoples under the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights. The Journal welcomes articles on all legal issues pertaining to the African continent in its entirety.

Leiden Journal of International Law

Published for The Foundation of the Leiden Journal of International Law

Editors-in-Chief

Eric De Brabandere, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Ingo Venzke, Amsterdam Center for International Law, The Netherlands

Firmly established as one of Europe's leading journals in the field, the Leiden Journal of International Law (LJIL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world's most important international tribunals in The Hague (such as the ICJ, ICTY, ICC and others) and elsewhere, as well as examining new trends in international legal thinking. LJIL is essential reading for academics and practitioners who need to stay abreast of recent developments in these areas.
