THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association (based in the UK) has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature, and civilisations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and it sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association has about 3,500 members. Members receive two hard copy newsletters, two issues of Omnibus and the Presidential Address each year. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals The Classical Quarterly, The Classical Review, and Greece & Rome.

For more information and a membership application form please contact the Secretary, The Classical Association, Park House, 15–23 Greenhill Crescent, Watford WD18 8PH (tel. 01923 239300, e-mail: office@classicalassociation.org). The Secretary can also give information about the reduced journal subscription rates, and about the Association's other occasional publications.

THE CLASSICAL REVIEW

The Classical Review publishes informative reviews from leading scholars on new work covering the language, literature, history, archaeology, philosophy and reception of ancient Greece and Rome and Asia Minor. Producing hundreds of high-quality reviews every year, The Classical Review is an indispensable reference tool, essential for keeping abreast with current classical scholarship.
